When Time, who steals our years away
Shall steal our pleasures, too,
The mem'ry of the past will stay,
And half our joys renew.

*"Standing over midst the forest
'Neath the oak trees' shade . . ."*

*James A. Gray High School
Winston-Salem, N.C.*

From Waughtown down to Chapel Streets, past the tennis courts, and up the cool, long walk through the tunnel, is heard the rhythmic beat of footsteps announcing the arrival of students for another day of work and fun together.

Through this front door we have roamed many times. The important events that have happened behind these doors are recorded in our yearbook— Let's let them live in our hearts as memories of our Alma Mater.

"Back our hearts will turn to praise you...."

To Miss Brown Phillips whom we shall always remember for her unlimited kindness, human understanding, warm sympathy, and unerring sense of fair play,
we, the 1952 graduating class,
proudly dedicate our section of the BLUE AND GOLD.

SENIOR OFFICERS

Senior Class Officers, W. D. Fesperman, treasurer; Pat Alley, secretary; Bobby Sowers, president; and Rodney Reich, vice-president, make plans for homeroom meetings.

Dignified seniors— the privilege of occupying the front seats in assembly— marching in— over seven seats— sit down and rise together.

Combined senior class meeting in 216— called to order by Bobby Sowers, president— choosing the type of invitation, and selecting our calling cards— looking forward to graduation!

Secretary Patsy Alley reporting that Susan Holt and Hall Crews "Buster" Miller will be mascots.

What teacher will be dedicatee of the annual?— It's so hard to decide— Miss Brown Phillips is the honored one!

Seniors, Johnny Coleman, Billie Higginbotham, Pat Alley, and Bill Peters leave for the annual Junior-Senior Dance.

Superlatives— Who is the best looking?— a good sport?

Choosing juniors to marshal us out of Gray High School— Rodney Reich, vice-president, heading the motto committee— Bobby Sowers, chairman of flower, color committee nomination for beauty queen— Patsy Pierce Taylor, the lucky one.

Class gift to school— W. D. Fesperman, treasurer— Mrs. Carrie May Allgood, Miss Ruth Meinung, and Miss Mary Miller Knox guiding us through the year.

Farewell, Gray High School— out into the big, wide world!

Miss Mary Miller Knox, Mrs. Carrie May Allgood, and Miss Ruth Meinung, class sponsors, help the seniors during homeroom period.

Seniors Kelion Hinshaw and Graham Rights discuss problems with Mr. J. A. Woodward, principal.

Barbara Barron, Beverly Nance, Bill Carpenter, Anita Hiatt, and Jerry Ann Jervis reminisce looking through a National Honor Society scrapbook.

Donnie Maynard, Johnny Coleman, and Ann Pifer, decorating for a dance, put on the last minute trimmings.

GRAY TEEN COUNCIL

Enjoying an old fashioned square dance are Ann Pifer, Paul Shoaf, Marie Pettyjohn, and Donnie Maynard.

Remember all those chairs we moved out of 216 to have a dance during the football season—the trouble we had for our Halloween square dance—the hayride to Camp Betty Hastings that cold November night, when only six couples were brave enough for the “deep-freeze”—all those Officers W. D. Fesperman, Jane Newsome, Johnny Coleman, and Montine Young make plans for future Gray-Teen meetings.

Wednesday night meetings in the homes of members—

Then at last we “welcomed” the new gym with sock-hops after the basketball games—the spinsters’ hop—all these and many more activities make a memorable year for the Gray Teen Council!

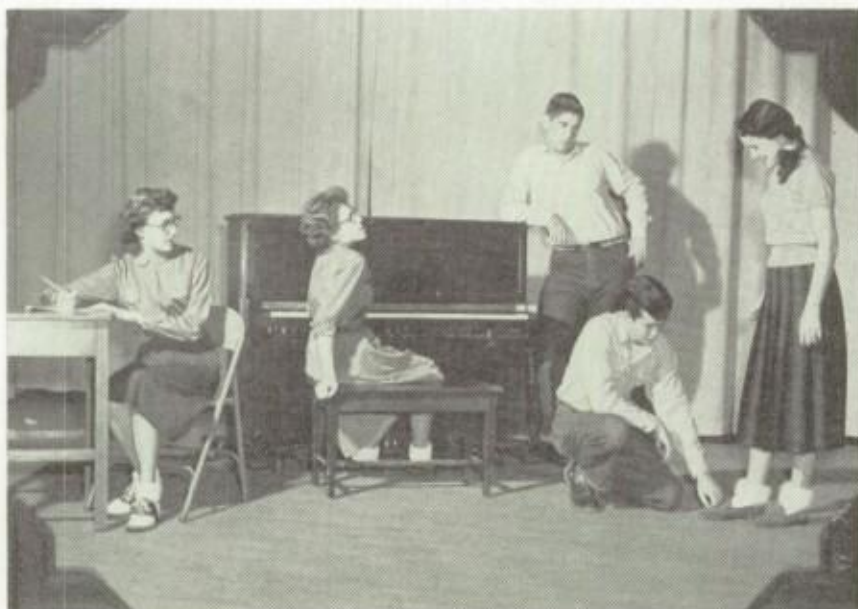

Martha Robinson, Phyllis Alexander, and Bobby Weatherman arrange posters on a bulletin board for publicity.

Bill Peters, Joan Brown, and Pat Alley, while waiting for other Gray-Teen members to go on a hayride, listen to an exciting football tale by Ernest Yokley.

"May no act of son or daughter — — —"

COURT OFFICIALS

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Government of Hanes High is run on the same plan as the city government of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. It has a Mayor and City Manager, William Beck and Gene Burton, respectively, the same as the city government.

The court consists of a judge, Adrian Cox; a clerk, Etta Lou Apple; a solicitor, Lawrence Masten; and a stenographer, Shirley Nail. Mrs. Alliene Burns acts as the faculty advisor for the court and the Monitors Club, which is the same in student government as the police force is in the city government. The monitors give summons slips, and court is held once a week for the lawbreakers. There are usually between sixteen and twenty monitors in the club.

The Board of Alderman makes the laws for Hanes High the same as the City Alderman make the city laws. The Alderman meet once a week with the Mayor presiding. This year the Alderman have revised the school charter.

The Aldermen are elected to represent each home-room for each semester. Eighth grades have representatives who attend meetings but have no voting power.

OFFICE PAGES

Girls are assigned as assistants to the office secretary each period during the day. They help with general office work such as typing, running the mimeograph, answering the telephone, and taking notices to the classrooms.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the National Honor Society is the most coveted of all awards given in high school. The requirements for membership include: Character, leadership, scholarship, and service. Only fifteen per cent of the senior class may be inducted.

First row: S. Blanton, N. Wooten, E. L. Apple, W. White, B. Atkinson, F. Freeman, B. Ratledge. Second row: L. Masten, A. Cox, D. Haslett, W. Beck, G. Burton.

LIBRARY PAGES

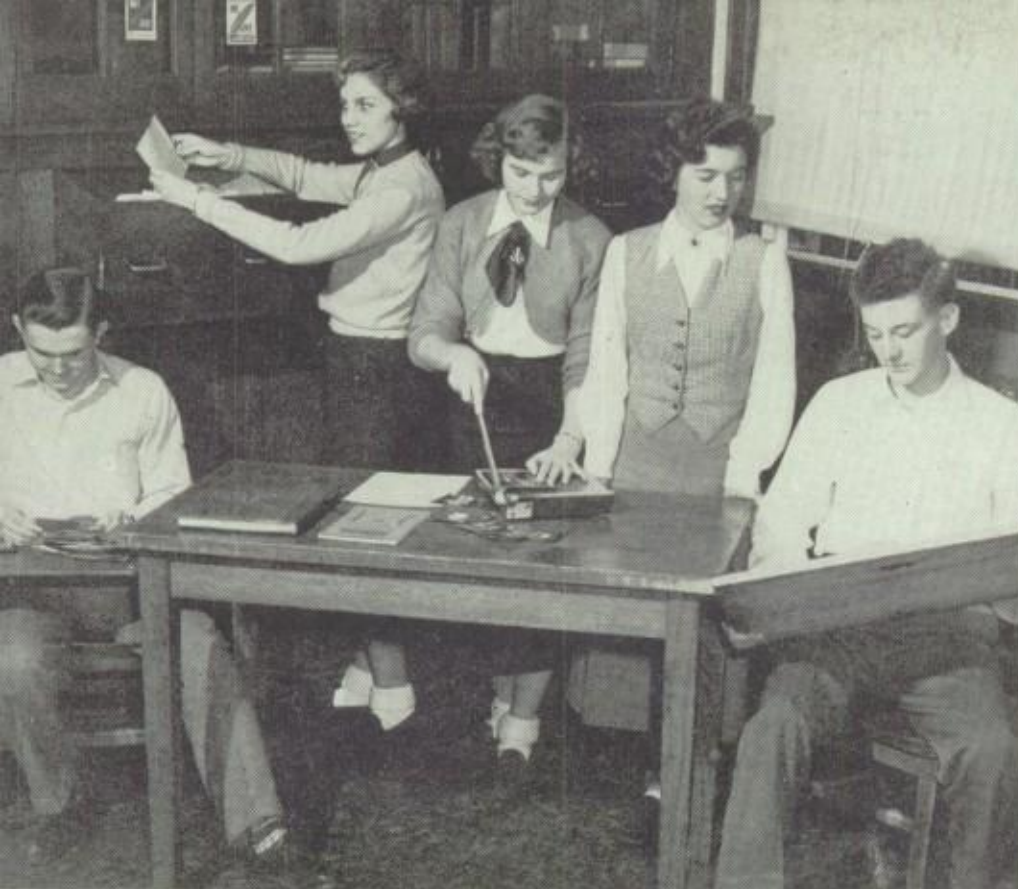

Library pages assist the librarian in checking books in and out, reading shelves, and assisting students in finding books. Students in all high school grades are eligible to serve as Library Pages during study periods.

MASQUE AND GAVEL

Masque and Gavel, the honor society for students who excel in speech and dramatics, was organized at Hanes High in 1950. Selection of new members is made by former members and the club sponsors.

PUBLICATIONS

The publications of Hanes High School are the Hanes Hi Rada, the school newspaper, and the Purple and Gold, the school year book.

All editorial work for the twelve issues of the Hanes Hi Rada is done by the Students of Journalism I and II.

For the Purple and Gold the students plan the page arrangements, compile senior write-ups, and other copy, cut and paste pictures for the various panels, and do the proof-reading. Miss Martha Mickey is advisor for both publications.

Both publications are judged each spring at the Southern Interscholastic Press Association at Washington and Lee University in Lexington, Virginia. Editors for the coming year are delegates each spring.

For those who excel in a superior type of Journalism there is membership into the Quill and Scroll, the International Honor Society for High School Journalist. Those who have received this honor are: Jim Shelton, Bob Adams, Gayle Heck, Etta Lou Apple, Barbara Ledwell, Harvey Elledge, Jim Reavis, Sue Holton, and Ann Talbot.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club, composed of students who have taken or who are now taking Latin, was organized to promote a better understanding of the Romans and the Latin language.

Activities of the club programs, which were given on special days, such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, St. Valentine's Day, The Ides of March, the Birthday of Rome, and May day or Spring Festivals, included playing of Latin games, singing songs in Latin, dramatizations, playlets, making Latin valentines, posters and scrapbooks.

As a spring activity, the club selected the theme "The Relation of Latin to Modern Life" as a project for painting attractive posters for decorating bulletin boards and the Latin class room.

Latin is truly international and is a bond between nations. Whatever line of work one may enter, he will find Latin useful. Not only does it increase ones knowledge of his own language but aids in understanding and learning other languages.

SPANISH CLUB

The 1951-52 Spanish Club was formed by students who had already taken one year of Spanish and those who are taking their initial course.

At the first club meeting, officers were elected as follows: President, Peggy Reavis; Vice-President, Robert Dockery; Secretary, Jane Austin; and Treasurer, Pat Shields. Peggy Reavis, who was also appointed program chairman, had charge of the programs and other Spanish Club activities which took place throughout the year.

Spanish culture has been practiced in the United States more than the members of the club had realized. Since the textbooks referred to this subject only briefly, the Spanish Club tried to stress this point above all others. To this, a trip illustrated by prints, was planned through Brazil, Boliva, and Peru. On this journey, much was learned about the customs of our South American neighbors. Since we are living in a day when all the nations of the world are drawn closer together, this was very helpful.

Interesting book reports were given through-out the year by members of the club. A study of the customs, the problems of daily life, and the people of Mexico, was also made.

One of the outstanding programs of the year was presented at Christmas. Consisting of the following things: A scripture reading translated into Spanish, a class translation of "La Nochebuena en Mejico" (Christmas Eve in Mexico), the singing of carols, and reading of other things that pertained to Christmas translated into Spanish. The program was very educational and was enjoyed by all.

Since new friends are always welcomed by everyone, the Spanish Club helped to make friends by the writing of notes to another person who had had Spanish. Names were drawn to determine who would write to whom. The notes were written in Spanish and were enjoyed by the students.

Members of the club learned more about Spanish by making up conversation in Spanish, while other members translated this into English. This conversation consisted of fairy tales and other stories. Riddles were often asked and answered in Spanish. These were often very humorous and added gaiety to the meetings.

Later in the Spring, a Spanish bulletin board was prepared by the students. The theme was "Spanish in America." Part of the board was attractive posters made by members of the class.

Other Spanish projects carried on during the year were letter writing to students in South America, the learning of songs such as "Salado Soy de Jesus" (I Am a Soldier of Jesus), and the playing of games such as Bingo, in which the numbers were called in Spanish.

CHORUS

The Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Ralph Walker, completed a very successful year. For the Preaching Mission, February 1952, members of the chorus combined with the mixed chorus from the other city high schools to sing "The Hallelujah Chorus," by Beethoven.

The District Music Contest was held at Greensboro on March 14, 1952, and the following ratings were received: Mixed Chorus, excellent; Mixed Quartet, composed of Shirley Lancaster, Sue Tuttle, John Baxley, and Davye Hiatt, superior; Girls Trio, composed of Shirley Lancaster, Carolyn Culler and Sue Tuttle, excellent; Jayne Chambers, alto solo, excellent; and John Baxley, baritone solo, excellent.

The chorus also sang for several chapel programs during the year.

May our days at Reynolds ever be a pleasant Memory

.... A memory which we've tried to portray in the following pages with words and pictures.

Reynolds

To one whom we shall always remember for understanding all difficulties, for giving us encouragement when we needed it most,
for taking our mistakes and blunders with a smile,
and for making our dreams of graduation a reality,
we the seniors of 1952 fondly dedicate
THE BLACK AND GOLD
to our class sponsor,
Miss Janie Weaver.

Fall

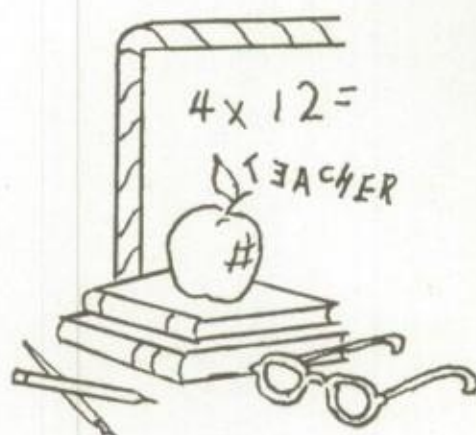

Leading the cheers of the crowd at the football games which high school students always remember are Martha Legette, Anne Smith, Bobby Newton, Jimmy Adams, Anne Middleton, Jo Anna Carter, and Diane Harris.

The scene of last minute exam cramming, the place where dates are made and broken, the fence on which the school "cats" roost, the early morning reviewing stand—this is the landing, the place we'll remember most.

.... Always among our treasured memories of RJR will be our teachers....

JOURNALISM STAFF: N. Teague, J. Aldridge, C. Raum, D. Weltner, J. Parsons, M. Martin, B. Burke, A. Gregory, D. Watson, M. Bednerik, M. Johnson, J. Phelps, M. Carmichael, P. Perry, J. Davis.

Pine Whispers

The journalism room was the scene of much hustling last year. (1) Marilynn Johnson and Pat Perry, editor and managing editor of Pine Whispers really kept the reporters working hard to get out all twelve issues of the paper.

(2) Dave Watson and Nancy Teague, the Sports editors had their reporters covering all the games to fill their page.

(3) Mr. Vaughn in the print shop, and Mrs. Ritter in the journalism room worked right along with us on every issue.

We'll remember most of all the fun we had co-operating with each other to publish the Pine Whispers.

Black and Gold

Although the 1952 Black and Gold has taken on the "new look," we hope that it will still serve the purpose of recalling vivid memories of days at Reynolds.

Heading the Black and Gold Staff are (1) the co-editors, Ann Gregory and Martha Martin; (2) the junior editors, Sue Bowles and Marjorie Muller, and senior editors Diane Weltner and Joan Parsons; and (3) the write-up editors Marya Bednerik and Nancy Teague and faculty editors, Carolyn Raum and Marya Bednerik. The hard working photographer was Gerald Wilson.

The RJR Demons finished the football season this year in second place in the conference with a record of seven wins, two loses, and one tie.

The Black and Gold squad maintained their city championship prestige by beating both their cross-town rivals, Gray and Hanes. Gray bowed first to the squad, and Hanes followed suit the next week.

The first conference game came against heavily-favored Burlington, but Reynolds sped to two quick tallies in the last period to take the game. For the next four games the Demons seemed to gain added momentum as they rolled through Asheville, Greensboro, Gastonia, and Durham.

The boys from RJR came into the Charlotte Central game with the conference lead and a record of seven straight victories. But Charlotte proved to be the pebble that stopped the bull-dozer, and RJR bowed to them and to High Point in the following fracas. The final tilt ended in a 0-0 tie with Salisbury.

National Honor Society

Do you still remember those anxious moments before induction—the rhymes and the chain gang at our initiation—scouting up business for our College Day representatives—sending Christmas gifts to under privileged children—our Christmas party and the girls who wouldn't kiss old Santa Claus—getting up a half-hour earlier on Wednesday morning and how sleepy-eyed we often were—shepherding our new students to the open house—our club program speakers—tapping at the spring introduction—all our struggles to make vocational Guidance Week a success—the election of new officers—the burnt hot dogs at the city picnic—Harold presiding at the state convention and the dance afterwards—the rush at the end of the year—and through it all,—Miss Dobson, always helpful and ready with a word of advice—yes, you remember and you probably won't soon forget.

Philip and Ann Gregory talk to two of the sixty-six representatives at the annual College Day which the Honor Society sponsors.

Print Shop

The printshop boys must have worked hard this year. How well we remember the twelve issues of Pine Whispers, Gray Light, and Hanes Hi Rada so efficiently put out—and the make-up and setting of type for the annual. The tickets for games, programs, and basketball and football schedules also kept the boys' fingers inky during our Senior year.

The first year of printing teaches the boys the fundamental printshop knowledge and the second year brings more detailed work. Press work plus the kinds of type and their uses are included in this training.

The Junior and Senior years are much more complicated with the tasks of newspaper and book composition along with printing plates and linotype work. Of course, there is the necessity to acquire—skill.

Remember Mr. Dale Vaughn, "Chief of the Print Factory" and the tutor of these boys? He was the one who always kept things moving at a swift pace.

As we look we can picture the boys who were in the first year class; Curtis Rothrock, Clyde Shumate, Ozzie Nelson, Ronald Evans, Buster Jarvis, Kenneth Wallace, Clarence Russell, Paul Norris, Buford Hawkins, Harvey Davis, and Ira Bumgardner—all learning to set type.

The second year was smaller including only Bobby Wolfington, Kennard Mabe, Fred Smith, and Landon Wooten.

Buddy Ayers, Roger DeHart, Don Collins, and H. E. Futrell made up the third year class.

The Seniors are Wayne Adkins and Ray Smith, who have completed their four years training and have been a help on production work and instructing under classmen.

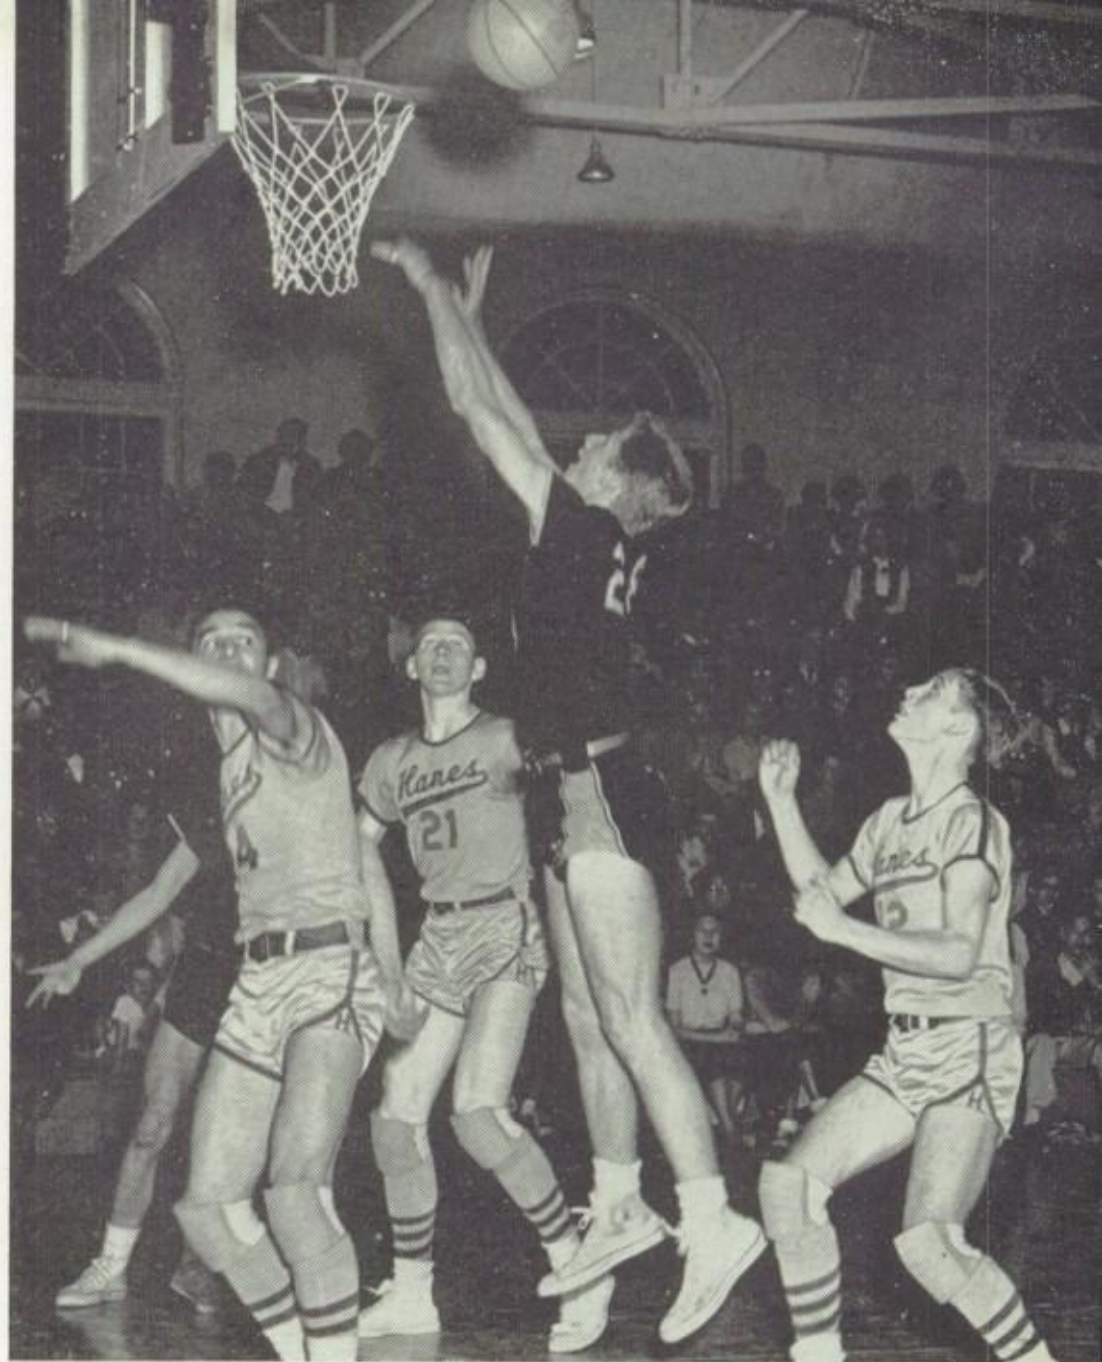

Do you recall how hard the printshop worked on the small yellow cards and ribbons inscribed "Beat Gastonia, Go Black Demons", and "Beat Burlington"? The boys did this in addition to their usual procedure. The preparation of the Black and Gold and Pine Whispers, Football Programs and Basketball Programs, takes extra time and skill, and besides this, the folding and assembling of papers and other printed matter keeps the entire group quite busy.

The House of Representatives and

W. Allred, speaker; D. Chapple, speaker pro-tem; M. N. Meroney, secretary; M. I. Carlyle, treasurer.

During the year 1951-52 the House of Representatives, sponsored by Elizabeth Kapp, was under the leadership of William Allred, speaker; Dewey Chapple, speaker pro-tem; Mary Nell Merony, secretary; and Mary Irving Carlyle, treasurer.

How well we remember the slogans which reminded us not to throw down waste paper! We often bent our backs to the task of keeping our campus clean.

The hall monitors were constant reminders for us to behave in the halls. The House Court corrected those who broke regulations.

The new students recall the tea which they enjoyed with the Student Council, the House members, and the National Honor Society.

The House of Representatives stands for the pride we have in our school and its students.

Student Council serve all year

Harold McKeithen will remember the year 1951-52 as the year he presided over a hard-working student council. He was assisted by Jeff Smith, vice-president; Teenie Chapple, secretary; and Bob Hankins, treasurer. In addition to these officers the council worked intensively to promote the honor system throughout the school. This was done by group and individual discussion and by chapel programs. The council was responsible for the Lost and Found, sending delegates to district and state conventions, and acting as ushers for the P. T. A. open house meetings. This year the council made a special effort to see that each new student became acquainted with the school and be made to feel at home as quickly as possible.

EIGHTH GRADE SERVICE AND SOCIAL CLUB

Lynn Hamrick, Bill Shelton, Jimmie Turner, and Dave Pardington rehearse for "Down in the Valley," an operetta presented last fall.

THESPIANS

"Gavrilovitch," played by Dave Watson, greedily devours his meal in the opening scene of "The Moving Finger."

Will you remember the big production of the year, the operetta "Down in the Valley"—taking it to the regional contest—tryouts and rehearsals for "The Moving Finger"—our trip to Chapel Hill to the Carolina Playmakers Festival—trying to renew our prize of last year—?

And what about those "informative" club programs—the skits we gave for other clubs and parties—all that business we had in clubs—the organization of the Board of Officers—thinking about a club constitution—posing pictures for annual action shots and the scrapbook—our scrapbook making such a good showing in Chapel Hill—?

Don't forget all the things that composed a wonderful year—!

Officers of the Dramatics club are: Nancy Teague, treasurer; Marva Bednerik, secretary; Joan Parsons, president; Jimmie Turner, vice-president.

First row: G. Thompson, D. Chapple, J. Phelps, P. Leinbach, B. Buchanan, E. K. James, B. Shepherd, N. Kroustalis, J. Smith, J. Hart, K. Keiger, D. Spangler, B. Burke. Second row: M. Johnston, G. Hemingway, T. Johnson, G. Bondurant, D. Swaim, D. Kelly, H. McKeithen, J. White, T. Schultz, W. Allred, B. Gramley, L. Shepherd, B. Hankins, C. Miller.

KEY CLUB

The Key club has proved itself to be one of the most co-operative organizations in the school. Under the leadership of Charlie Miller, their president, and Mr. Ramseur, their sponsor, these boys have undertaken and successfully completed many different projects.

Don't you remember all the gay affairs during the exciting week of Homecoming? The exhibit in the amphitheater? The declamation contest? The huge bonfire? The big parade? And finally, the big dance after the game?

And of course you remember all the beautiful decorations around the school during Christmas? Or the Follies of 1952, which brought out much of the hidden talent in RJR? These were also Key club projects.

Some of the Key Club members put up Christmas decorations.

Key Club officers are Bill Burke, corresponding secretary; David Spangler, vice-president; Bill Gramley, treasurer; Manfred Johnston, secretary; and Charlie Miller, president.

President Sarah Lou Reynolds helps to set up the Thursday Morning Music Club's homecoming exhibit which won first prize in the S.S.C. contest.

THURSDAY MORNING MUSIC CLUB

The Thursday Morning Music Club, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Alexander, has participated in some outstanding performances this year.

They sang for the National Recreation Convention on November 22 at the Robert E. Lee Hotel; and on January 25, they gave a program at City View School. On March 14 the club took part in the annual contest held in High Point.

For youth night, April 5, of the Preaching Mission, the club, with choruses from Hanes and Gray, provided music.

Mary Lib Cummings accompanies the girls chorus, and Jimmy Pfaff plays for the mixed chorus.

VOICE CLASSES

Remember "Down In the Valley"? Dave Pardington as Brack Weaver, and Lynn Hamrick as Jenny Parsons, did a wonderful job. We'll never forget Bill Shelton (Thomas Bauche'), or Buzzy Sims (the preacher), Jimmy Turner (Mr. Parsons), or John Garvey (the guard), or Richard Henderson (Peters).

Miss Alexander and Miss Kapp certainly put a lot of hard work into the show, not to mention Jimmy Pfaff and "Billie" Cummings, who played the accompaniment for the show. Remember the big chorus with sixty-five people, and all the dancers? They really did a bang-up job and long hours into the production. December 14th was our big night, and we repeated the whole show on April 5th for Salem's drama festival. Gee, we'll never forget 1952. What a year!

DEBATING CLUB

"Resolved: that every American citizen should be subject to conscription for essential service in time of war." This was the query on which all high school debaters contested this year.

Under the capable leadership of Mrs. Evelyn Garrison, the club met and elected as officers for the year Walter Webb, president; Philip Leinbach, vice-president; Sarah Glenn, secretary; and Allan Gitter, treasurer.

After devoting many afternoons to practice debates, Mary Nell Meroney, Philip Leinbach, Allan Gitter, and Walter Webb were chosen as the four best of those who took part in the debates and this group became known as the Varsity Debating Team. The four next were known as the Junior Varsity. These were Pellerree Hearn, Alice Whamann, Suzie White, and Barbara Shore. After the eliminations, all who participated in the tryouts became known as the Debating Squad.

This year, the club members also took part in the homecoming exhibits, and participated in the various speech contests.

Last year, our affirmative team composed of Walter Webb and Harold McKeithen was judged the best affirmative team in the state, but lost to Roxboro in the state finals at Chapel Hill.

FRENCH CLUB

From our memories of the activities of the French Club in 1951-'52, one thing stands out particularly. In December the three French classes combined held an Open House for parents, teachers, and students. The first part of the program was devoted to Christmas celebrations in France, and a candle scene in which each character, holding a lighted candle, said a prayer of hope for the world. The second part of the program was composed of a puppet show depicting the story of "Little Red Riding Hood," and the miniature model of Paris in winter. The hard work and cooperation of the French students and the Art Department made the program a big success. This gigantic project was such a huge undertaking that it completely overshadowed all the other activities of our club.

MONOGRAM CLUB

Probably the first thing we'll remember when we think of the Monogram Club will be our officers; Jeff Smith, president; Joe Correll, "veep"; Joe McKenzie, secretary; and Tip Johnson, treasurer; all of whom represented the club on the Interclub Council.

Let's think back of the many projects sponsored by the club this past year.

Selling ribbons during the football season was headed by Jimmy Morrill, Joe Correll, Bob Newton, and Richard Fisher.

Will any of us forget the appreciative smile flashed by Roscoe Frazier, the gym custodian, when we presented him with his Thanksgiving turkey? Kason Keiger, Jim Nelson, and Jim White were the boys who led this benefit.

How could we forget that hilarious Monogram-sponsored basketball attraction between the varsity and the male members of the faculty, which Tom Schultz, Kason Keiger, and Jim White arranged, directed, and produced.

The annual Black and Gold game, as usual, was the biggest and most successful project undertaken for the year with Sam Saunders and Jim Nelson, co-chairmen.

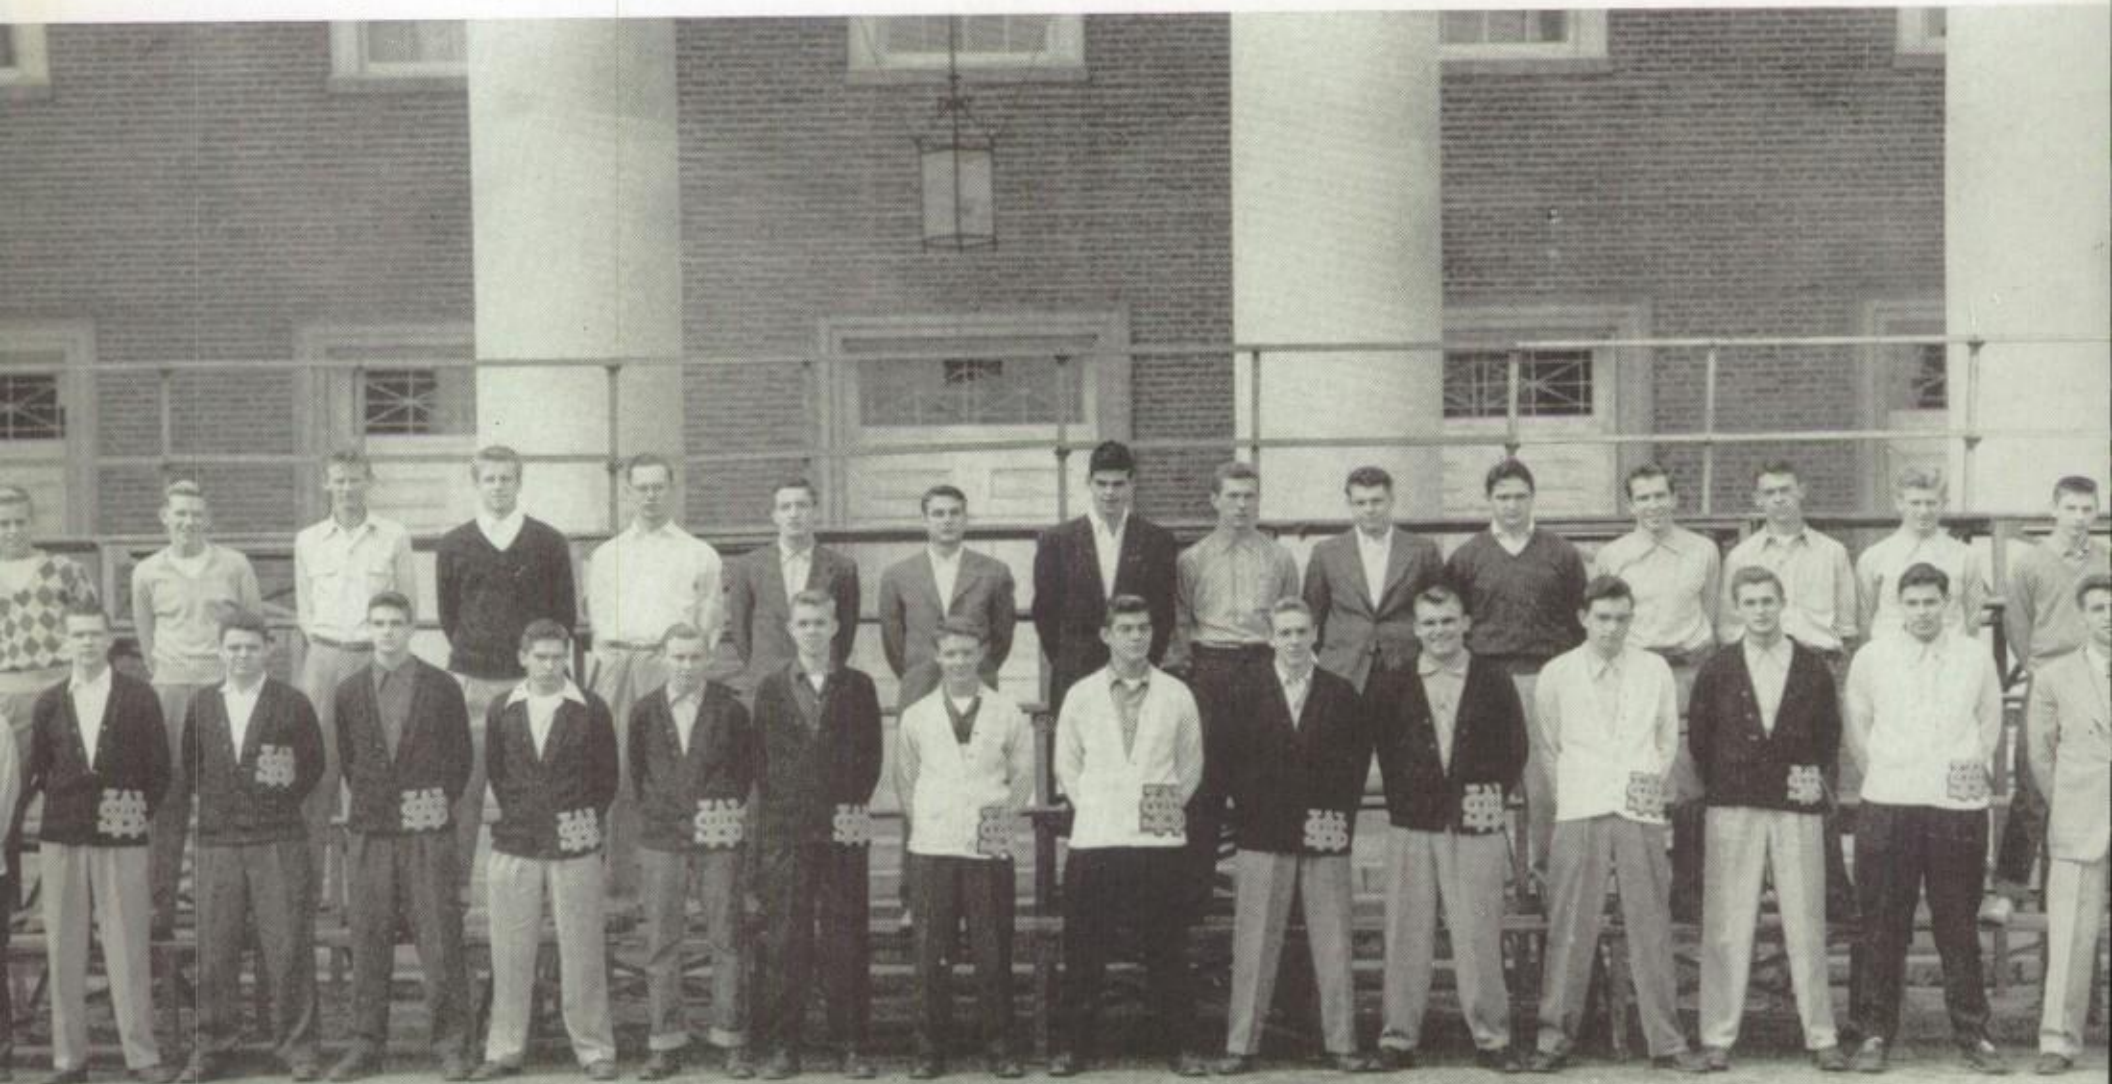

Of course, none of us will ever forget our sponsor, Coach John Tandy, nor all he has done for us, as individuals and as a club.

Clockwise— Jim Nelson, Treasurer; Joe Correll, V-President; Jeff Smith, President; Tom Schultz, Secretary.

SENIOR HI-Y

When the present members of the Senior Hi-Y were inducted as freshmen, they didn't know then what a fine organization they had entered. These boys have always been an inspiration to the students of our school by living everyday the motto of the Hi-Y, "Clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living."

This year under the capable leadership of Bob Hoover, president; Ray Fentriss, vice-president; Kason Keiger, secretary; Clyde Long, treasurer; and Jeff Smith, chaplain; we feel they have been one of the factors in promoting the love of God in the school and community.

Through the years these boys have gained valuable experience by taking part in the weekly Monday night meetings. The programs are varied, but they always begin with a short devotional, which each boy has had at least once, and end with a prayer. They feel that these meetings help them through the coming week with a closer walk with God.

This school will lose much with the graduation of this years Senior Hi-Y.

SENIOR SERVICE CLUB

On looking over this annual in a couple of years you will probably stop and think over some of the swell times that we boys of the S. S. C had together.

You will remember the great fun you had "shooting the bull" while you cleaned the venetian-blinds in the library—the awful time you had decorating Wiley with crepe paper that would not stick—those tedious moments you spent painting the bulletin board on Bill's side porch—and the times you were asked to sell "snow-balls" at baseball games or to put up the "Demon" at a football game.

Ah, yes, you'll never forget this one—that morning when the slimy job of cleaning out the fish ponds in the courts was just getting under way with Ray and Sam carrying out one garbage can after another filled to the brim with slime. Then the loud cry as Clyde slipped on the slick side of the pool.

But, there are things that are not so bright—you will remember when we lost a good friend and a coordinator the day Ray left for Japan and how Joe stepped in and kept the club going. Yes, these things will remain in your mind as a lasting impression of the S. S. C.

REMEMBER—

The College club meeting every Thursday morning?

As the purpose of the club is to prepare girls for college life and to help them in deciding which college to attend, we had speakers, movies, or students from various colleges on our weekly programs. Some of the colleges represented were Randolph-Macon, Hollins, W. C. U. N. C., Meredith, Salem, and Duke University. Other programs enjoyed by the group included Joe King making caricatures of various seniors, Dr. Welch from Salem College speaking on personality development, and a fashion show from Sosniks.

The members of the club have taken an active part in our many worthwhile projects. Some of these projects were—wrapping huge peppermint sticks as Christmas favors for the children in the wards at both the City Hospital and Baptist Hospital, making a display for the homecoming exhibit, and sponsoring a sight-seeing trip of the Duke University campus.

On the night of graduation a deserving girl in the club is each year presented with a hundred dollar scholarship which the members have raised. Then after the presentation of the diplomas the club holds open house for the graduates, their families, their dates, and the Reynolds High School faculty.

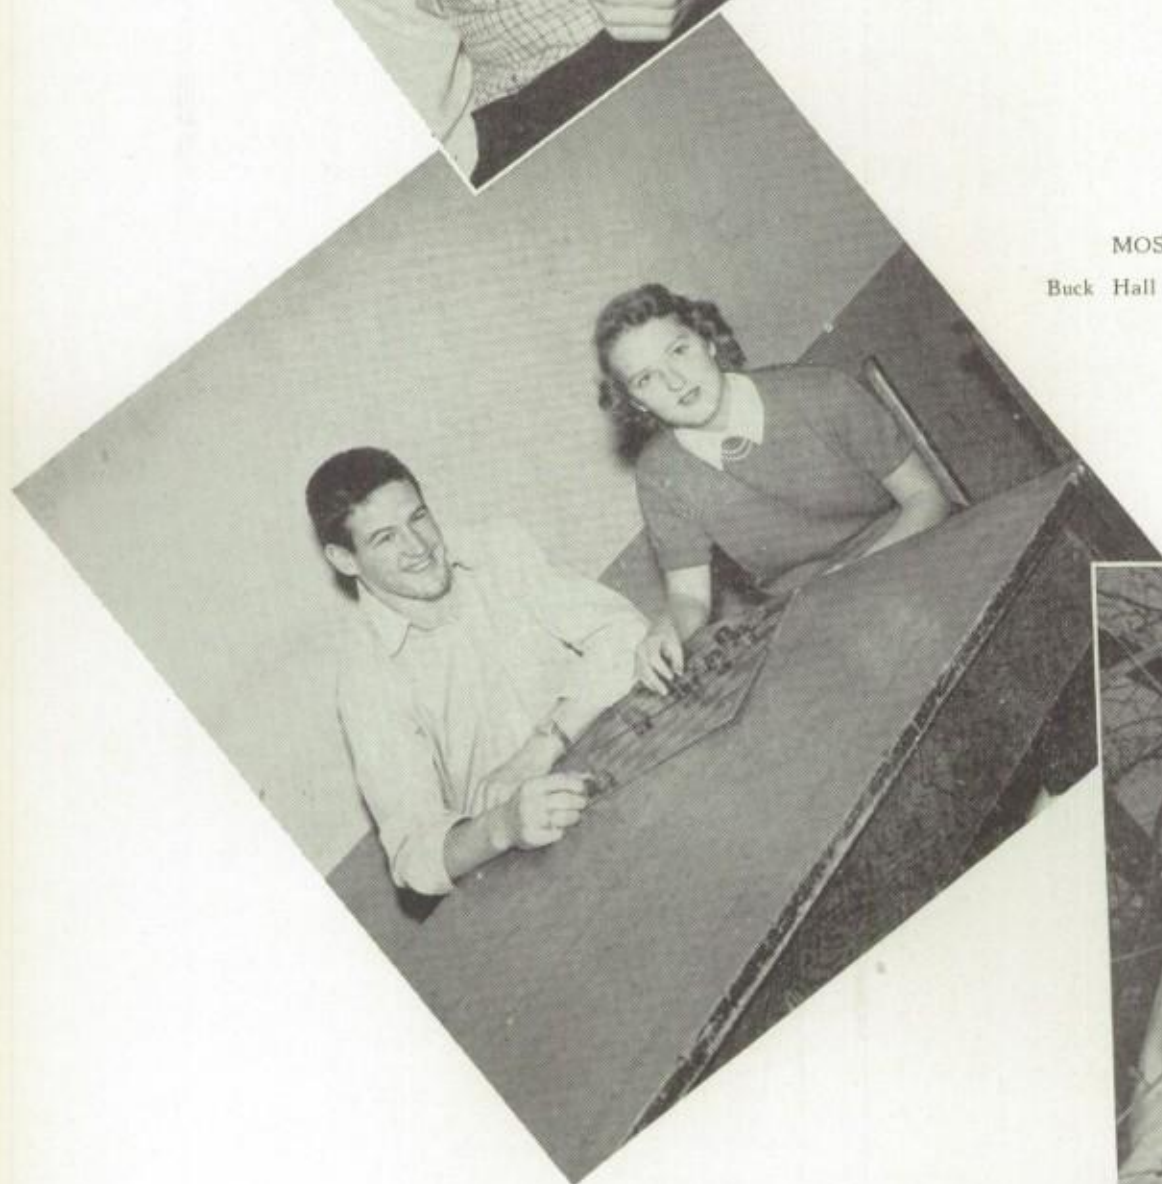

Thanks to Mrs. McDermott, our sponsor, who has given us many helpful hints on college life, and who has done much to make our club an enjoyable project and a helpful agent to our school.

Class of 1952

Reynolds

BILL ABERNETHY

"Abby" has had a busy Senior year with the Senior Service Club, basketball and baseball. He has also been treasurer of his homeroom. "Abby" majored in science here at Reynolds.

WAYNE ADKINS

Quite an athlete we have! Wayne has played football for four years, and since that wasn't enough sports, he added baseball and basketball. Fond memories of his friends will last Wayne through the years.

BARBARA ANN ALDRIDGE

"Baby", a home economics major, is ambitious for a future of "living, loving and laughing." She has been active in dramatics, public speaking, voice and physical education.

CAROLYN RUTH ALFORS

"Carol" hopes to have an R. N. after her name someday. She had a good start as a nurse's page at RJR. Her activities include the Dramatics club, Resegi. College club, and Y-Teens.

MILDRED ALLEN

Is "Mimi" 5'5", black haired, and blue-eyed? No—but, that's her desire! A busy girl, College club, Resegi, Booster, Dramatics, Y-Teens and tennis are some of her activities. Will Mimi remember the football games? You bet!

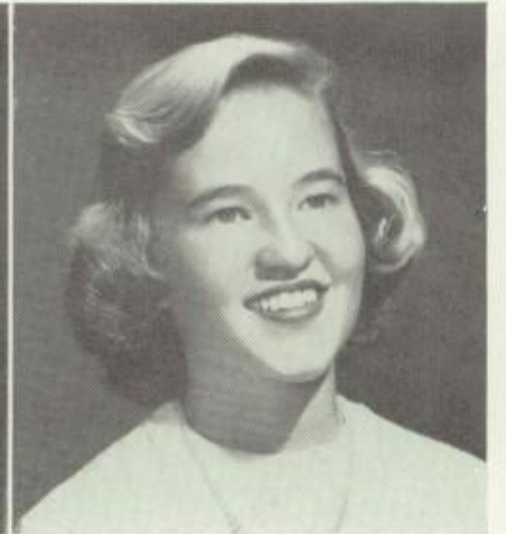

WILLIAM C. ALLRED JR.

"Willie's" future includes hitch-hiking around the world! He has been active in RJR and State Council Student government. He was also in the band, Key Club, Hi-Y and on the Varsity tennis team.

ANDY BAILEY

Although "Andy's" Senior year was his favorite memory of RJR, he really hoped to graduate. His activities include varsity football, Band, SSC, Hi-Y and Jr. High basketball.

MARGUERITE LEE BAIN

The football games and dances afterwards will be remembered by "Peggy". She has been in Resegi, College club, Dramatics and Art clubs. We wish her luck as a commercial artist!

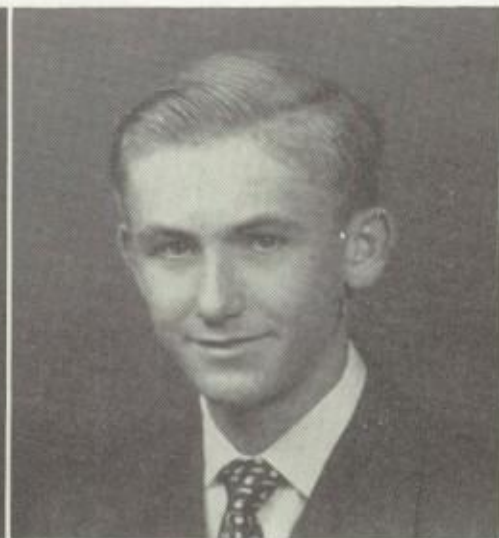

CAROLYN BALDRIDGE

Carolyn is one girl who will look back happily on graduation night and library staff work. She has also been on hall duty, in the House of Representatives, Resegi, College club and GAA.

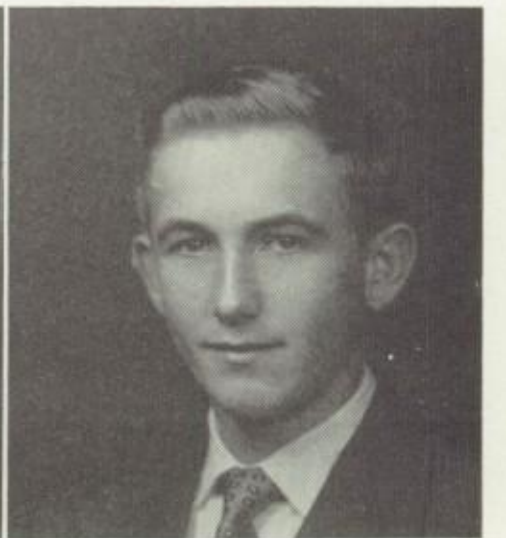

JEAN BEAUDRY

Here's a future engineer! Jean took the scientific course and belonged to Hi-Y and the Photography club. Jean will always remember one class—Miss Edward's English!

ARNOLD BELL

Arnold had a good start towards becoming a physicist. He took the scientific course, majoring in mathematics and science. His treasured memory of RJR?—Mr. Ramscur's physics class, of course!

RONALD BELL

Ronald certainly is a twin! He's interested in becoming a physicist and will remember Mr. Ramscur just like Arnold. The House of Representatives played an important part in his freshman year.

PATRICIA GRAY BENBOW

You can be sure "Patty" will remember when she was a homecoming football sponsor! This future nurse has been in Resegi, College club, Boosters club, Y-Teens and, naturally, a nurse's room page!

BARBARA FULLER BLACKWELL

Hoping to be a pianist, this musical miss has been active in the orchestra, other musical organizations, and sports. Barbara has also made all-state orchestra for four years, and those trips are her fondest memory.

BOB BLACKWOOD

We hope that "Docka" will attain his ambition of graduating. His interests include diving, motorcycles and pole vaulting. Docka's main activity at RJR was track, and he took the scientific course.

HENRY BOOKEY

We know that "Penny" will attain his goal and be a success in the business world. He has been in the SSC, Hi-Y Monogram and Ushers club, and track. Penny's memories of those weekends will linger on and on.

JAMES ALAN BOOE

Alan is hoping to go to VPI. Athletics interest him, and he played football for four years and track for two. He fondly remembers his eleventh grade English class. Any reason, Alan?

BARBARA ANNE BRANDON

We all agree with Barbara and will remember the nice teachers here at RJR. Barbara, whose aspirations are of an artistic nature, has belonged to Resegi, Art club and the French club.

BILLY GRAY BROWN

We have a future FBI agent in our midst! Look out! "Brownie" has joined the Ushers, Junior Project, French and Aviation clubs at RJR. He's another one who will remember our friendly teachers.

MARY WILLOUGHBY BROWN

"Brownie" seems to be well on her way to attaining her ambition, graduating. She has been active in GAA, basketball, tennis, and has been a member of the College, Dramatic, and Resegi clubs.

ROBERT W. BUCHANAN

"Bob" must be sports minded, for he will remember the football games and track meets. Could be because he was football manager and on the track team, besides being in Key and Ushers clubs.

MARILYN DON BUIE

"Dody" will surely be a success in commercial art for her fondest memory of RJR is the people. She'll also remember football and her year of sponsorship. She has been active in the College, Resegi, and Boosters clubs.

MARVIN L. CANN

"Tin Pan", who hopes to be a minister, must have enjoyed the Band. Mr. Mayer, the director, is his favorite memory of Reynolds. Marvin also belonged to the Bible and French clubs.

EMMA LOU CARTER

Emma Lou will always remember the football games, graduations, and basketball trips. She, a very active girl, has participated in all sports, the Library Staff, Y-Teens, National Honor Society and many other clubs.

Class of 1952

Reynolds

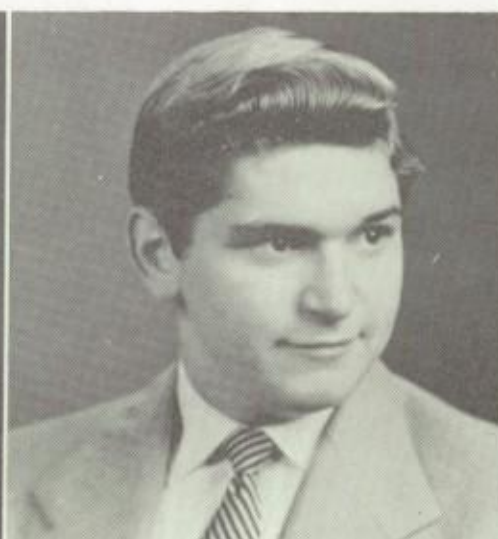

ELIZABETH ANN CHAMBERS

The treasured memory of RJR for "Liz" is girls' sports. It's no wonder for she wants to coach. Liz has been on the varsity teams of three sports and is Vice-President of the GAA.

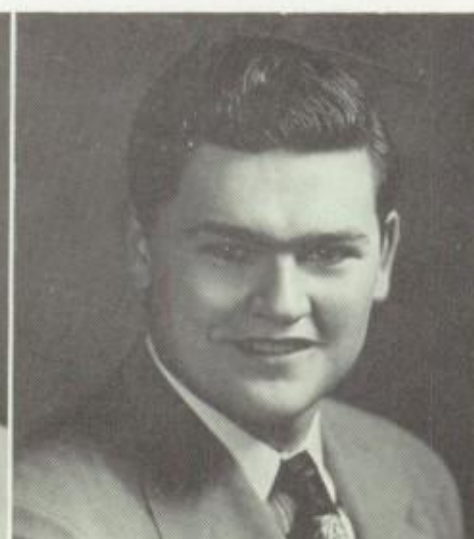

VULA CHAMIS

Vula is northward bound! She hopes to live in N. Y. City someday. Vula was a Receptionist, in Resegi, Dramatic and College clubs. She will especially remember 8:30 to 9:00—Chapel!

CLARENCE SMITH CHANCE JR.

The Junior-Senior and Miss Edwards' 8th period class hold many memories for "Slumpy"! Active in football, track, SSC, Band, Ushers club, and Hi-Y, Slumpy took the scientific and math courses.

LEE CHAPMAN

Lee George, who wants to be an electrical engineer, prepared for it by taking physics and solid geometry, besides history and English IV. Mr. Tandy will hold a high place in Lee's memory.

DEWEY W. CHAPPLE, JR.

Dewey, aspiring to be a Certified Public Accountant, will hold in his memory his friends and the band. He has been active in student government, many phases of music, DeMolay, and Hi-Y work, and the Key club.

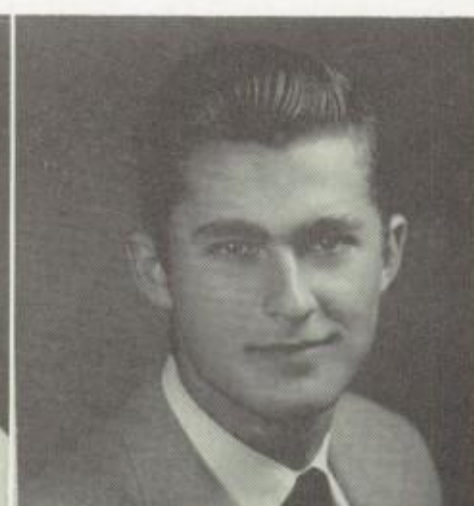

ANN CLINCH

We hope that "Clinch", who was in Red Cross, Resegi, and other clubs, will attain her ambition and make an A in shorthand. "Clinch" will certainly remember her friends and the fun they had together.

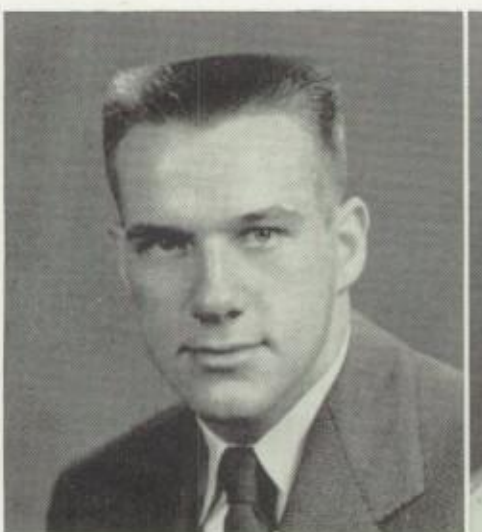

ANN COLEY

The lucky children who have "Coley" as their Kindergarden teacher! This popular gal has been: a Senior Marshall and football sponsor, on the library and business staffs, in Resegi, College club and other organizations.

JOSEPH S. CORRELL III

Joe, who took the language course, is one of our outstanding athletes. He has been on the football and golf teams, in the Boys' Monogram club, the SSC, and the Hi-Y club.

DOUGLAS CRATER

Perhaps "Big Dave" will become a millionaire someday! Doug, who was co-captain of the football team, holds the Western Conference high on his list of memories. He's also played baseball and was in the SSC.

JULIA CREWS

Here's a future kindergarten teacher! "Julie" has had among her activities, library and business staffs, Resegi, College club, and athletics. Her memories of RJR are of the library, graduation, and her many friends.

MINNIE CREWS

"Shorty's" ambition is to become an efficient, well-paid secretary. She will remember the opportunities in RJR for a good education and her many friends. "Shorty" has participated in Children's Home basketball and softball.

DIANE CRISSMAN

Diane, who was in the GAA, Intramural sports, Y-Teens, Boosters, Dramatic, College and Needlework clubs, took the language course. Diane, a future nurse, will keep her friends supreme in her collection of memories.

Reynolds

Class of 1952

ANN DAVIS

The Chapel programs were enjoyed by Ann, who is keeping her ambition a secret. In RJR she has belonged to the Boosters, Serviteers and Y-Teens. Ann took the commercial course.

BARBARA ANN DAVIS

Barbara will always remember the basketball trips and will continue to hope for the ability to recall the jokes told. She has been a member of GAA, Resegi, and College club.

JOEM RIVERS DAVIS

"Jo-Jo," aspiring to be a physio-therapist, will always remember the serenity of the halls and lunchroom of RJR. Her first years were spent in Washington, D. C. Journalism, Resegi, and dramatics have been her activities here.

WILLA JEAN DAVIS

A Homecoming queen and football sponsor, "Willie" hopes to be a dancer. She has belonged to the Dramatics club and Resegi, and took the commercial course. We're sure that she will remember all her friends here!

SUZANNE DE LANEY

"Suzie's" harp playing is well known to Reynolds. Suzie, who is another future nurse, took part in the College club, Resegi, tennis, soccer, and basketball. A football fan, Suzie will remember the games.

SHIRLEY DELLINGER

A future lab technologist, "Dilly" enjoyed the band trips and graduating. She has belonged to the College club, Dramatics club, G. A. A., Band, and Y-Teens here at Reynolds High.

NANCY DENNIS

The reference room and second floor landing are favorite spots of Nancy's. One of our outstanding leaders, Nancy had the Honor Society, Library staff, College club, and Resegi as a few of her activities.

ELLIS ODELL DISHER

"Odie", who was on the track team, will never forget it. His ambition is to be an electrical engineer. Odie belonged to the band, instrumental music, French, and photography clubs.

ROBERT KIRKMAN DIXON

"Bob" will always remember the football practices and games. He is not sure of his ambition, but track, baseball, and SSC membership seem to indicate sports and people.

JO ANN DOWNS

"Jody," who has been a member of the Resegi, College, Boosters, and Instrumental Music clubs, will remember football games and parades in the sunny South, although she wants to go up North to College.

RUTH JANE DUDLEY

Jane, who has been Chief Senior Marshall, a tennis player, and a member of the College and Resegi clubs, will also treasure the football games. Jane's ambition is secretarial work.

BETTY ANN EARNHARDT

A C. H. softball and basketball player and cheerleader—that's Blondie! She will always treasure the memory of the Senior year and Miss Edwards' second period English class at R. J. R.

Class of 1952

Reynolds

JEANETTE LOUISE EDWARDS

The College club, Boosters, Y-Teens, Resegi, Homeroom treasurer and hall monitor are only a few of "Lou's" activities. Perhaps as a future teacher, she'll see more Reynolds football games and chapel programs.

MARILYN EVANS

A fugitive from St. Paul, Minnesota, "Lynn" must have been impressed by R. J. R. because her Senior year is her favorite memory. Taking the general course, Lynn belonged to the College and Resegi clubs.

JO ANN FAGG

"Fagg," a worker on the Business staff, basketball team, cheerleader, a sponsor for three years, and a Senior Marshall, desires to teach the first grade. Graduation night and football games will be foremost in Fagg's memory.

RAY FENTRISS, JR.

"Beak" will remember the football team, S. S. C., and Hi-Y and hopes to do something right. To quote, "Leaving a place as fine as Reynolds is hard. Never have I learned to love a place and its people so much, especially in eighteen months."

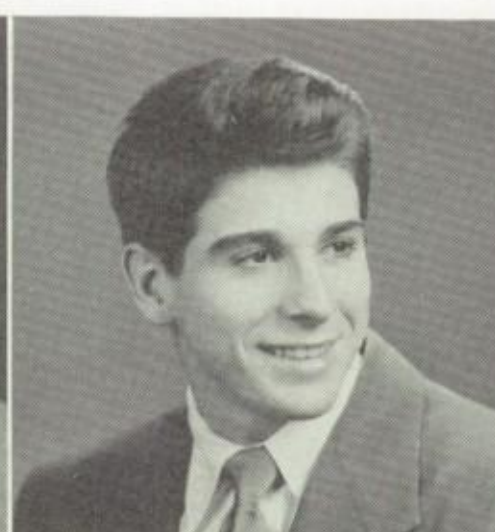

KATHRYN ANN FERREE

"Ferree" wants to get married, but will always remember her Junior year. She was on the Resegi planning committee, treasurer of the council, and a member of the Boosters and Dramatics clubs.

FRANK ALFRED FINLEY

Al, who wants "to be somebody," will recall fondly Miss Martin's Spanish II class. Al went to Decatur Boy's High, but here at RJR, football and the Teen Age council interested him.

DON FOWLER

Don has been Secretary of the Junior class, in the National Honor Society, Key club, Hi-Y, band and on the football team. Don, who aspires to be a doctor, will remember fondly the landing after school.

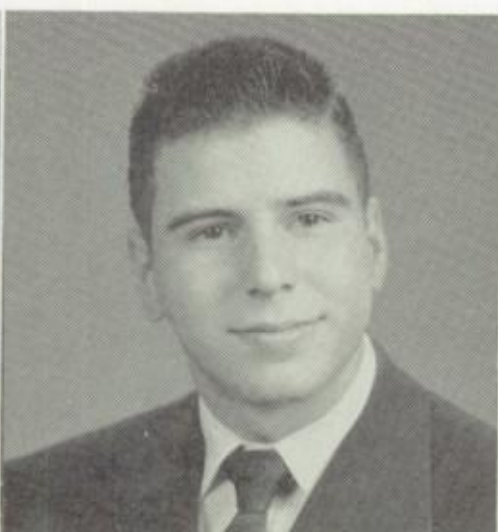

JO ANN FOX

Jo Ann, a Resegi, Y-Teen, member of the College and Dramatics clubs, will always remember the friends and fun of RJR. She is a future clothing buyer in a large department store.

NANCY CAROLYN FRY

After school bookkeeping, the commercial course, and helpful teachers have started Nancy on her way to a career as a stenographer. She has participated in Dramatics, Resegi, Sports, and the Serviteers.

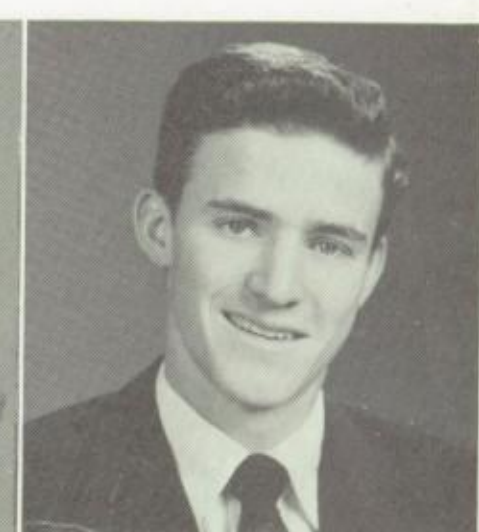

JAMES LEE FULK, JR.

In the future we see a new RJR building designed by Jimmy Lee. He has belonged to the band, Hi-Y, and Debating club. In Jimmy's memory the friendly and interested faculty and students will remain.

BETTE JEAN FUTRELL

"Weinnie", a future Foreign Missionary, has been active in sports, her homeroom, House of Representatives, and school services such as office page and hall monitor. RJR means fun and friends to Weinnie.

EDMUND P. GAINES

The friends that "Ed" has made will always give him fond memories of RJR. Active in the Band, Usher's club, Hi-Y, a Senior Business Representative, Ed hopes to be a successful businessman.

Reynolds

Class of 1952

LEWYN CARLTON GARDNER

"Louie" aspires to join the Marines and will remember Mr. Crookshank and the woodwork shop most when looking back on high school. Could it be because he took the Industrial Arts course?

SUE GARY

C. H. basketball, Glee club and softball, and the College club as her activities. Sue will remember the people she has met and the things she has learned. Her future is in the secretarial or business administration field.

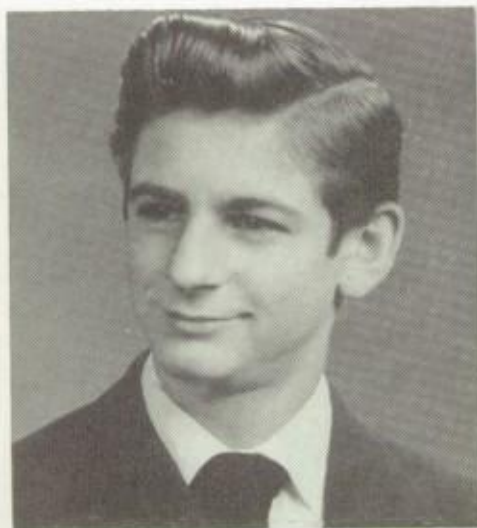

PAGE GENTRY

"Dotey", who hails from Leaksville, is another prospective nurse. Resegi, Y-Teens, Boosters, Dramatics, and College club are just a few of her activities. Miss Edwards' eighth period English class is Dotey's treasured memory.

ELIZABETH LIND GILES

We hope that "Lind" will attain her ambition of dating that "certain" boy. She will remember the Jr.-Sr. dance best. She has been a member of the Basketball team, college club, Resegi, G.A.A., and Business staff.

EVAN GOUGH

"Weenie" has the ambition that most of us do: to be a success. We hope that he attains it. Graduation from Reynolds will always be his treasured memory of RJR.

NANCY RUTH GOUGH

The helpful teachers are Nancy's favorite memory of Reynolds High. The Resegi, Boosters club, and Serviteers were the activities of Nancy, who hopes to be a stenographer someday.

ANN LEE GREGORY

Ann will remember the Journalism room. Could it be because she's co-editor of the Annual and on the Pine Whispers staff? Our D.A.R. Representative has been in the Honor Society, Quill and Scroll, on the council, a Senior Marshall, president of Brush and Palette club, and vice-president of Y-Teens.

FRANKLIN GRIFFITH

Frank, a future electronic technologist, will remember the band trips most. Could it be because he's been in the band and Instrumental Music club four years? Frank has also played tennis.

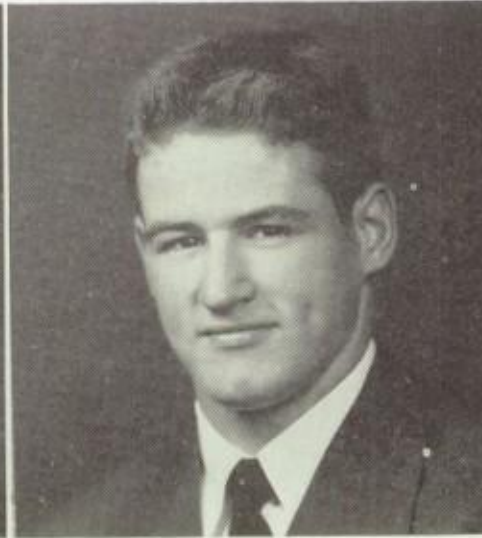

BEVERLY HACKBARTH

"Bev", who wants to be a D.R.E., has been in the Honor Society, College club, GAA, Resegi, Y-Teens and took the language course. She has for her most treasured memory the library and Miss Caldwell. Bev was also President of the library staff.

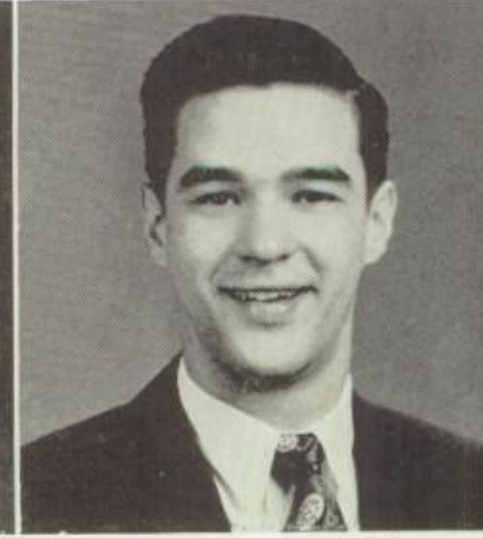

GEORGE L. HALL, JR.

George will always remember the 1950 and 1951 football teams. Could that be because he was out for football those two years? He hopes to be a big business man, and took the general math course.

SYLVESTER HALL

"Buck" has his eye on sports. Hoping to be a coach, Buck has played basketball, football, and baseball. He was in the C. H. Monogram club. He was his senior homeroom president, and will remember Miss Edwards most of all in RJR.

JAMES HARRIMAN

An unusual occupation is in the future for Jim, for he wants to be a forester. The Senior Service club is his favorite memory of RJR. He belonged to the SSC and the Band.

Class of 1952

Reynolds

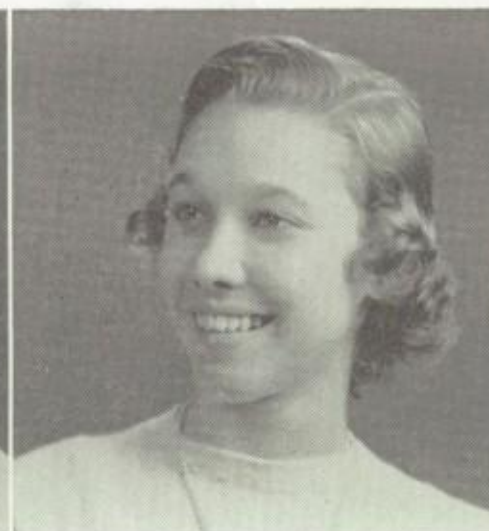

JAMES HART

"Leon" was active in the Key club and Hi-Y and on the track, and football teams. He will remember Mr. Barnette's history class when he's a doctor.

MARGARET HARTLE

Peggy, secretary and vice-president of the Y-Teens during four years, has also belonged to the College, Sketch, Dramatic, and Resegi clubs, been on the Library staff and a hall monitor. Her memory will be of the people.

BARBARA HEDRICK

Barbara, a D.R.E. to be, will always remember the helpful and friendly teachers at R.J.R. She has been a hall monitor, in the G.A.A., Intramural sports, and Resegi, the College, and French clubs.

JAN DANCY HENDERSON

Jan, who remembers the people at R.J.R., wants to accomplish some hard task. She has been a member of the College club, Resegi, Y-Teens, and G.A.A.

ANN LOUISE HENDRIX

Ann wants to be a children's librarian and will remember the chapel programs most about R.J.R. She has been active in the French and Bible clubs.

PEGGY ANN HODGE

"Redhead", always remembering the chapel programs, aspires to be a successful secretary. She's worked in the supply room, on the library staff, and as an office page and was a member of the Thespians and Resegi.

HAZEL ANNA HOLLEMAN

Hazel hopes to have her own private kindergarten someday. She has been a Y-Teen four years, a member of the Boosters, College, and Resegi clubs and the G. A. A.

ROBERT ALEXANDER HOOVER

"Max" plans to make his profession administering medicine. He has been an active member of the Hi-Y and SSC. Football has played a big role in his life—the long afternoons of practice are his most treasured memory.

CAROLYN IVESTER

"Tinymite" hopes she can get up early in the morning someday! The Thursday Morning Music club, particularly entertaining the students, was an important part of RJR to "Tinymie". Dramatics and Resegi were other activities.

BESSIE JO JEFFRIES

With math as her major, Jo has a good reason for remembering Mr. Crowell's math classes. Hoping to be a nurse, Jo has participated in GAA, Intramural sports, College club, and Jr. Red Cross Council.

MARY EDITH JOHNSON

"Dedee" will remember lunch and football although she aspires to walk across the stage on graduation night. She's been secretary of the senior class, on the Resegi planning committee, Varsity basketball team and in the GAA.

MARILYNN JOHNSON

Marilynn, who hopes to study art, will remember 111. Her activities include: Editor-in-chief of Pine Whispers; Honor Society, SIPA Delegate; French, Resegi, Art and College clubs.

Reynolds

Class of 1952

MANFRED JOHNSTON

Perhaps a speech at P. T. A. will be made by "Mank" someday. He hopes so! "Mank," who places football practice in his list of RJR memories, was in our student government, Key club, and Hi-Y.

MARILYN JORDAN

Although Marilyn aspires to finish high school, she will remember the RJR teachers. She has been a member of the Resegi, College and Dramatics clubs.

VAN JULIAN

Van, a future hospital administrator or criminal lawyer, will remember football, chapel and homeroom. He's been active in Hi-Y, football, basketball, track, Ushers club, and Monogram club.

RACHEL MILDRED KATZIN

"Black-Eyes" wants to be a successful Commercial artist. She was vice-president of the Brush and Palette club, on the library staff, an office and nurses' room page, and a member of the College, Resegi, French and Boosters clubs.

ROCHELLE KATZIN

Rochelle, who treasures the guidance and advice of some of the teachers, wants to live a "happy, normal life." She's been a hall monitor and office page, a member of the Boosters, Y-Teens, Thespians, College, Resegi and French clubs.

ROBERT KASON KEIGER

Kason doesn't know whether to be a bachelor or not!! He will always remember the "Great 1951 Football Team." He has been a member of the Hi-Y and Key club and on the track and football teams.

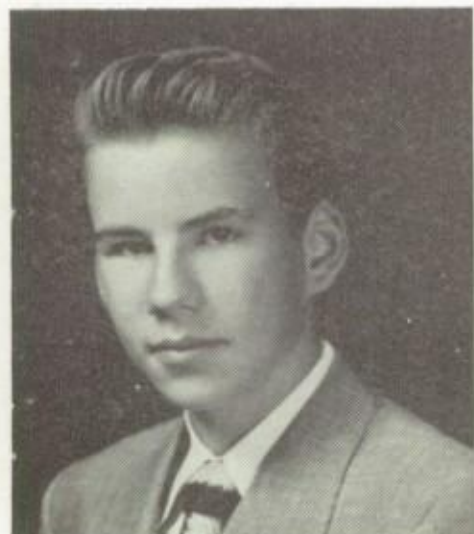

EDWARD BENJAMIN KING

Ed's ambition is to live at the beach. Even though his most treasured memories are study hall and lunch, he was quite active in sports. Football basketball, and baseball kept him on the go.

JO ANNE KIRKMAN

"Jan" wants to be a doctor "when she grows up" and she'll remember the front seats in chapel. Sports and dramatics have taken up quite a bit of her time but Jan found a place for the College club, too.

GRAY LEINBACK

Gray will remember Mr. Barnette's 6th period history class when he's out in the woods—for he's going to be a forester. The Mixed Chorus and Thursday Morning Music club were a sideline of Gray's along with the Ushers club.

PHILIP EATON LEINBACK

"Phil" wants to become a lawyer and enter politics. Could it be because of his activities in the speaking field? He was also president of the Honor Society, and our candidate to Boys' State. Phil will recall with fondness the guidance of the teachers.

MARION SHEPPARD LEMLY

"Pee Wee" hopes someday to rid herself of the tag, "Slim." Short hair and "A" model rides are the memories of this member of the Teen Age council, GAA, College club, Resegi, and Business staff.

MARLANA LEONARD

"Lana" who hails from Midway High, where she was a marshal, A Beta club officer, and Harvest Queen Candidate, will remember the beautiful campus and nice people of RJR. Her ultimate goal is a husband and family.

Class of 1952

Reynolds

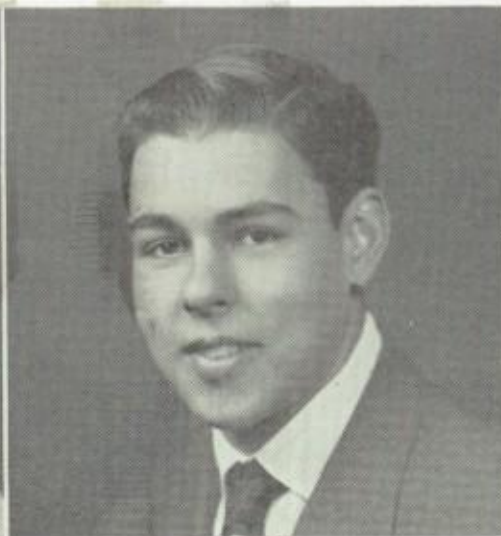

ARLENE ISABEL LEVY

"Lee," who wants to move Washington to North Carolina, will especially remember the band trips. It could be because she has been a member of the marching band, Instrumental Music club, Re-Bops, and Orchestra.

VEGA ANN LINGLE

Vega, who hopes to be a success, will recall her freshman year and graduation. She has been chief alternate, Senior Marshall, treasurer of the College club, Secretary of the freshman class, and president of the Teen-Age council.

CLYDE ANDREW LONG, JR.

Wonder if Clyde will attain his ambition of getting married before the end of college? The football player, who was also treasurer of the Hi-Y and Teen-Age council, and S. S. C. and Monogram club member, will remember first period chapel.

ELIZABETH LUTHER

"Lib," who played basketball, was on the Student Council, Resegi Planning Committee, secretary of the College club, in the National Honor Society, treasurer of the Library Staff and will recall fondly Miss Weaver.

MARY LOUISE MABE

"Biddie," a future bookkeeper and singer, will remember the willingness of the teachers help. She was a member of the Boosters club, Serviteers, and Resegi.

G. G. NICK MAKAS

Nick, who wants to be a singer in a well know chorus, remembers the Glee club and the Ushers club fondly. Could be because he was an active member of both in addition to being a hall monitor.

RALPH H. MARLER, JR.

Buck, who hopes to be successful in engineering, will remember the pleasant teachers, lunch, fair play, and friendliness. S.S.C., Hi-Y, and the Teen Age council are his activities.

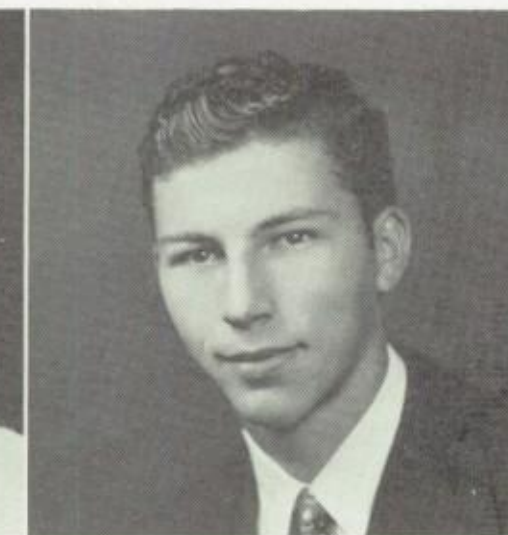

MARTHA MARTIN

Martha wants to be successful in one specific field. Wonder what? The good times in 111 will be her favorite memory. The Quill and Scroll, National Honor Society, Co-editor of Black and Gold, Football Sponsor, and Senior Marshall were her activities.

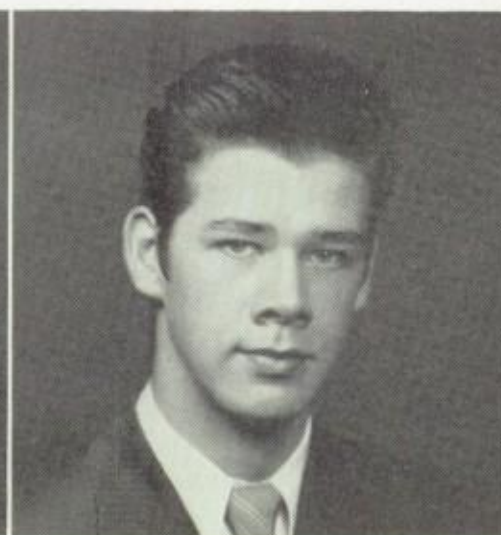

MARION McCALL

Marion, who will remember the football games, wants to be an efficient secretary. She has been in the College, Resegi, Y-Teens, GAA, Dramatics and Music clubs.

ROBERT FRANK McCARN

"Chink," who will fondly remember graduation exercises, might attain his ambition of living 'til 1000 A.D., but we doubt it. Children's Home Sports and "Treasuring" for his Sophomore Home-room kept "Chink" busy.

DOUGLAS J. McCORKINDALE

"Zombi's" life couldn't have been unpleasant, could it? He wants to get out of RJR and will always remember it. Band, Orchestra, Dramatics, and Football constituted his activities.

BARBARA McELVEEN

"Mac," a future secretary— efficient she hopes, will remember the football games and the Junior-Senior. She's worked on the Library staff, Business staff, Resegi, College club, and Y-Teens.

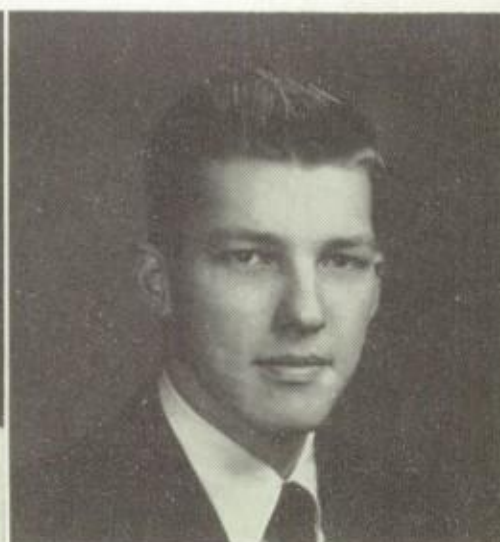

Reynolds

Class of 1952

LAURA KAY MCGEE

Kay plans to go into religious music work and will recall fondly her "friendships." Honor Society, House of Representatives, Music, Football sponsorship, Hall monitor, Office page, and College and Resegi clubs have occupied Kay.

HAROLD McKEITHEN

Harold wants to do a good job of his life's work and will remember the friends and the people here at R.J.R. This student body president has been active in speech, government, sports, clubs, and Honor Societies.

JOHN EDWARD McMILLIAN

Ed, whose favorite memory of R.J.R. will be the landing, hopes someday to run a big business. Active membership in the Stamp club and the Photography club has kept Ed occupied.

BILL MCNAIR

It seems that Bill is doing just what he wants to— get a good education and have fun doing it. Afternoons at the gym and that "A" average will remain with Bill, Secretary-Treasurer of the S.S.C., member of the Library and Business staffs, Basketball team, and Hi-Y.

MARY ANNE McQUOWN

Mary Anne, a future home demonstrator, will remember the club periods and chapel programs most about R.J.R. Clubs, sports, and Resegis have kept Mary Anne busy.

JAMES E. MESSICK

Jim, although a newcomer to our school, will remember the R.J.R. football games. During his one year here at Reynolds, he was an active member of the Brush and Palette club.

SYLVIA MESSICK

Sylvia, who wants to be a D.R.E., will remember fondly sports and band trips. She has been very active in student government, Sports— president of the G.A.A.—band, and Thursday Morning Music club. The Honor Society ranks high on her list of activities.

CHLOE ANNE MIDDLETON

Anne, fondly recalling the football seasons, will soon be working as a medical secretary. She has been a cheerleader, football sponsor, senior marshall, member of the Business Staff, House Court, and many other organizations.

MARTHA MILES

Martha, a future resident of Connecticut, will remember her junior year at R.J.R. C.A.R., Y-Teens, Brush and Palette club, Resegis, and Dramatics have occupied Martha.

CHARLES MILLER

"Chas" wants to be a success, and will remember his teachers and friends. Football, presidency of the Key club, Hi-Y, and track have kept "Chas." active throughout his high school career.

PATRICIA JO MINOR

Pat hopes to be a good soldier's wife. This Resegi, hall monitor, and College club member will remember the four years spent in Mrs. McDermott's Latin class.

REBECCA MORE

Becky looks as if she's well on the way to attaining her ambition— graduation. Children's Home sports: basketball and softball, and cheerleading have kept Becky occupied.

Class of 1952

Reynolds

MARY LANE MORDECAI

Wonder if M.L. will ever attain her ambition of taking a trip around the world? Mr. Crowell's second year algebra class and the 3:05 bell will be the memories of this business staff, College club, Resegi, and Y-Teen membebr.

JIM MORRILL

Jim, who will remember "all the swell people," hopes to decide on a vocation. House of Representatives, SSC, Monogram club, Hi-Y, and four years of baseball have occupied Jim during high school.

BARBARA LEE MYERS

Barbara will remember her senior year, graduation, and football games when she leaves RJR. She has been busy with orchestra, Y-Teens, Instrumental Music clubs, and Senior Marshall.

COY JAMES NELSON, JR.

"Peewee", a future business administrator, will remember quite a few things about RJR.— friends, social life, teachers, chapel, football games, graduation. Football, SSC, and the Monogram clubs have kept "Peewee" busy.

NEDRA MYRNA NORRIS

Nedra, who will remember all her friends, aspires to be a secretary. She has been an office page, Resegi, worked in the supply room, and a member of the mixed chorus.

PATRICIA O'DAY

Pat will remember the chapel programs and football games when she graduates. She has been a member of the College club, Resegi, varsity tennis, Y-Teens, GAA, and Dramatics club.

WALTER PALMER

"Wally", a future Priest, will remember Miss Collette's homeroom. He has been a member of the library staff, a Junior Red Cross representative, and president of the Radio club.

MARY HELEN PALMORE

"Rusty", will remember the view over Hanes park and play reshearsal after school when she gets to Japan as a home economics teacher. Dramatics and music have kept the vivacious red-head active.

CONSTANTINE V. PAPPAS

"D-D-Dookie", who hopes to survive high school will remember just that—the school. Track, Thursday Morning Music club, Band, and Junior Project club have occupied "D-D-Dookie".

JOAN MOODY PARSONS

Joan's treasured memories, on and backstage, reflect her activities; the yearbook, Pine Whispers, and Dramatics. She is a member of the Honor Society and Masque and Gavel. We're sure that this versatile girl will attain her ambition of being successful in all phases of life.

BETTY JEAN PASCHAL

"Cotton", a future medical secretary in Duke Hospital, will recall Mr. Corwell's philosophy and her senior year. Resegi, Y-Teens, Boosters, Dramatics, and College clubs are "Cotton's" outstanding activities.

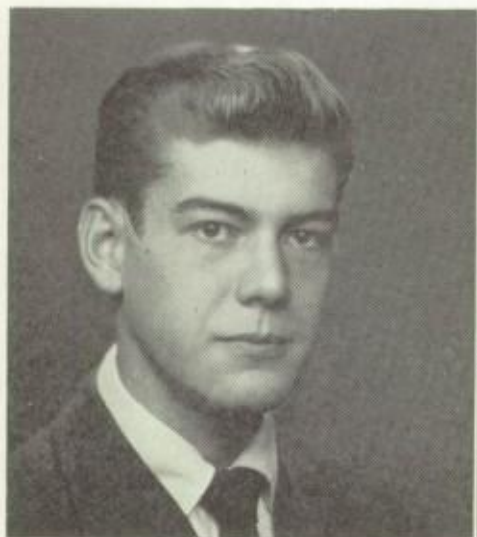

FAY RUTH PAYNTER

"Little Bit" wants to be a success. The Honor Society of which she was treasurer will be her favorite memory. She has also been a Resegi, hall monitor, Junior Red Cross representatives, and office page.

Reynolds

Class of 1952

ROBERT F. PEEK

Bob wants to acquire knowledge and will remember the people he has met since he came here in his Junior year. He has been a member of the football and track teams, and Monogram club.

CHARLES PERRY

"Sleepy" will remember the teachers and his friends in school and sports when he's in college. He belonged to the Hi-Y, SSC, and various clubs in addition to playing football and basketball.

PATRICIA MARIA PERRY

Pat will remember her three years in the journalism room when she's publishing a daily "Pine Whispers." Besides being managing editor of the P. W., she's been a football sponsor, in Debating club, Resegi, and Teen-age council.

NANCY PETERSON

"Pete", when she's a married Music teacher, will remember being a Senior Marshall and the football games. House Court, Hall Monitor, Resegi, College club, and Thursday Morning Music club have occupied "Pete's" time.

GERALDINE PFAFE

"Gerry" will remember chapel when she's a laboratory technician. Y-Teens, Resegi, College, Brush and Palette clubs and Honor Society have occupied Gerry through her four years.

JOHANNE PFEFFERKORN

A member of the college club, planning committee, Resegi, GAA, Dramatic, Boosters, Needlework, and Art clubs, and an office page and hall monitor, Johanne will recall chapel and the football games fondly.

SARAH PFOHL

Wonder if Sally will ever attain her ambition of being five feet, three inches tall. Miss Weaver will be the treasured memory of this College and Boosters club president, Senior Marshall, Honor Society and Orchestra member, Sophomore Council representative, and football sponsor.

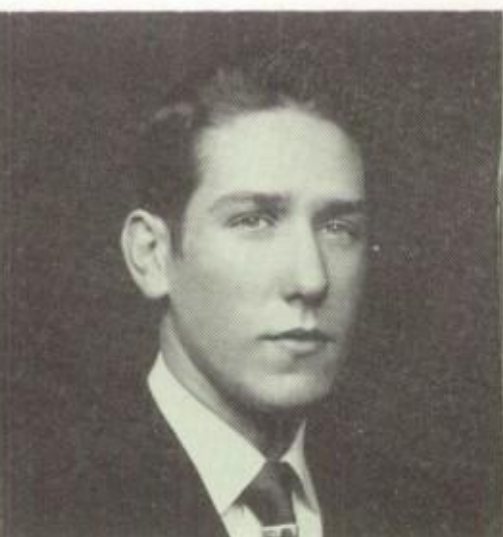

SARAH LOU POINDEXTER

"Lu Lu" will remember football games, parades, and the band when she's in college. She's been a member of the Mixed Chorus, College club, Resegi, Y-Teens, and is a Color guard in the band.

PATSY LOU POPLIN

It's doubtful whether Patsy can completely change her appearance, but she probably can get married and sell hats!!!! The good times and graduation are the memories of a College, Resegi, Y-Teen and Booster club member.

PAUL PURVIS

"Purvi", whose ambition is to graduate and succeed, will remember the Thursday Morning Music club. Music combined with the Jr. Project club have occupied "Purvi" in RJR.

CAROLYN ARLINE RAUM

"Candy" will remember the 3:00 bell, ideas, and 204 when she takes her world cruise. She has been a reporter and exchange editor for Pine Whispers, an office page, and tennis participant.

ROSALIE DEJAIFRE RAY

"Ray" seems to have already attained her ambition of being a Navy wife. This rememberer of Mrs. McDermott's Latin class is active in athletics and is an office page.

Class of 1952

Reynolds

JOAN LEE ROBIN

Joan will remember all her good friends when she enters the retail merchandising field. She has been a College club member, Resegi, receptionist, and Soccer and basketball participant.

CURTIS MILLIARD RILEY

College is ahead for Curt, who plans to be a business man. Belonging to the Boy's Glee club, Mixed chorus and voice class, and playing football for C.H., Curt will always remember his friends.

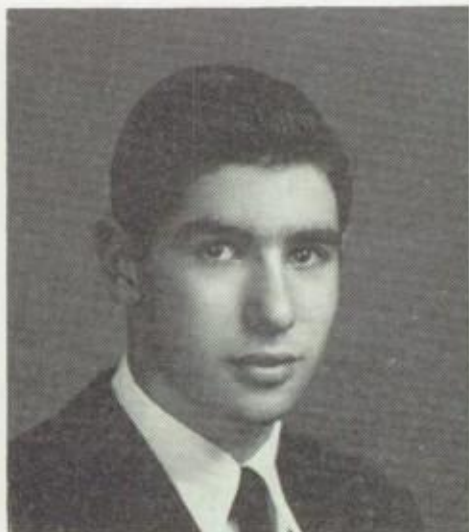

SARAH LOU REYNOLDS

"Lulu" wants to become a nurse and perhaps an entertainer. Her activities, Majorette, National Honor Society, Mixed chorus, and Thursday Morning Music club among others, are in accord with her memory of "working with friends in the music department".

JOHN REAVIS

To graduate in '52 is the ambition of "Red". Logically, graduation day follows as his most treasured memory of RJR. Red took the industrial arts course.

STEFAN HOWARD ROBIN

Steve hopes to win an argument with Miss Colette! Steve, who was manager for '51 of the business staff, holds treasured the memory of being thrown into RJR's fish-pond! Track and Hi-Y were his activities.

STUART ROLLINS

"Tootsie", who hopes to be "some type of businessman", will recall all the fine teachers and pupils. The Library staff, Photography, Dramatics and Brush and Palette club have kept him busy at RJR.

ELIZABETH BELLE RUMPLE

To teach primary school is Libby's desire. Library staff, College, Resegi, Glee clubs, and Y-Teens were some of her many activities. "The people that I've met" will always be remembered by Libby.

RACHEL RUSSELL

Her senior year is Rachel's favorite memory of RJR. Four years of C. H. softball and basketball were the activities of Rachell, who looks forward to a career as a typist.

SAMUEL LENTZ SANDERS

Sam must be football minded! He wants to play more of it, and will remember the team and his friends. He has been co-captain of the football team, SSC, and Monogram club member.

OLIVER SAPP

To follow the sun is the ambition of Ollie, who will always remember Friday at three o'clock. A sports fan, Ollie participated in Golf, 3,4; and basketball 2, 3, and 4.

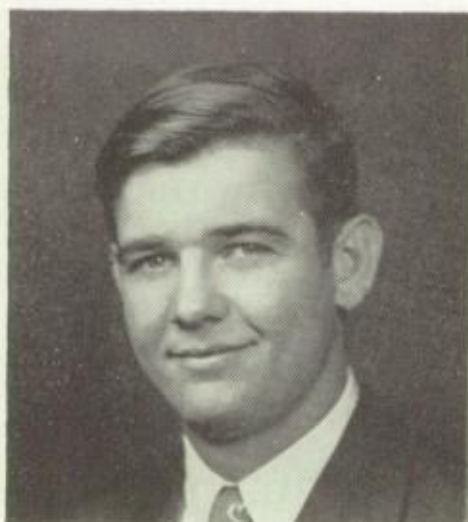

TOM SCHULTZ

Three years of football, president of the freshman and sophomore class, the Monogram and Key clubs add up to a fine list of activities for "Abe". Wonder why he'll remember lunch period?

PEGGY LOU SELF

During her stenographic career "Lulu" will remember "backstage after the play." She's been a member of the House of Representatives, Dramatics club, Business staff, a Nurses page, and treasurer of her homeroom.

JAMES SHEETS

The holidays away from RJR are "Gus's" favorite memory. Taking the scientific course, Gus was active in C. H. sports. He is hoping to become an engineer.

LARRY SHEPHERD

"Focus" will remember his friends and football practice. He has been a member of the Student Council, Key club, Hi-Y, Monogram club, and football team.

FRANK SHOOK

"Sureshot" expresses the ambition of many of us when he says that he hopes to dodge the draft. Frank, who took the scientific course, will always remember the auditorium.

KENNETH SHUPING

Kenneth has been active on the basketball, football, and baseball teams of the Children's Home. His ambition is to graduate and then probably enter some phase of the commercial field.

JAMES EDWARD SIMS

"Buzzi", a future singer, will remember the bookroom and the Amateur Shows. He has been active in the Dramatics club, Bookroom, Hi-Y, Jr. Red Cross council, and Mixed Chorus.

ANNE MARIE SMITH

"Smith", a future stenographer, will remember football games and graduation night. The Business Staff, Cheerleaders, College and Resegi clubs, Orchestra, and Y-Teens have kept "Smith" busy.

JEFF SMITH

This student council Veep, Key club and Monogram club member, and Hi-Y chaplain wants to do well at Davidson. His memory will be one of "Boys who have found out what they wanted in life since I knew them."

MARY ANN SMITH

Mary Ann will remember her sophomore year when she's a successful secretary. She has been a Hi-Y sponsor, Veep of Y-Teens, member of the College, Resegi, Boosters, and Needlework clubs.

RAY SMITH

Ray's future plans are with Uncle Sam—the Air Force! Graduation day from Reynolds High School is a memory that won't be forgotten by Ray. He took the printing course.

MARGARET SMITHERMAN

"Maggie" will remember "friends, home-room, and the Latin scholars." Honor Society, GAA, Council, Softball, Basketball, Soccer, Y-Teens, Resegi, and College club have occupied Maggie.

ANN SPACH

"Annie" will remember her friends at RJR in the Junior Red Cross. She's been secretary and president of the school council, president of the Chapter Council and Secretary of the Southeastern Area Advisory Council. In Y-Teens she's been secretary, treasurer, and president.

DAVID SPANGLER

The track team is David's most treasured memory. He was on the football varsity and manager freshman year. Key, Monogram, Debating clubs, the House of Representatives and the Scientific course kept David busy.

Class of 1952

Reynolds

DONALD STANLEY

Don wants to be a success, but he'll always remember the fun he's had at RJR. Hi-Y, Business staff, and Ushers club have occupied Don in his spare time.

BOB STEPP

Bob has been president of the Senior Class, a member of the Student Council, and has been active in the sports at Children's Home. A doctorate degree is his ambition.

DANIEL SWAIM

Music! Music! Music! That's Dan's interests. A member of the Key club, Hi-Y, Orchestra, Band, and dance bands at RJR. Dan will remember the Music department. He hopes to play sweet music in a bop band.

JACK TAYLOR

Jack, who took the general course hopes to be educated. Belonging to the SSC and the Junior project club, Jack will always remember his friends and the swell time enjoyed at Reynolds.

PATRICIA ANNE TESCH

Mrs. McDermott's Latin class has made a large mark in Anne's memory. She has belonged to the National Honor Society, Resegi, and was very active in the music department for four years.

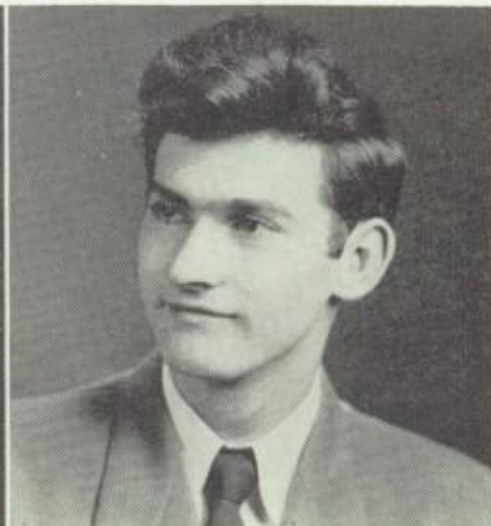

EUGENE THOMPSON

Gene hopes to be a successful CPA. His classes remain high in his memories of RJR: namely, his Spanish class and Miss Stephenson's English class. The Hi-Y, Key, and Debating clubs were Gene's main activities.

NANCY SUE TODD

Suzie, who was a majorette for the band, will remember participating in the band's various activities. She has been in the Boosters, Resegi, and Dramatics clubs. Her ambition? To get rid of those freckles!

L. C. TUCKER

"Elsie", who took the scientific course, wants to be a success as a big farmer. Coach Tandy and his teams are his most treasured memory of RJR. Elsie's activities included Hi-Y.

JAMES REGINALD TURNER

Jimmie, who hopes to take New York by storm, enjoyed those afternoons spent working on plays in the auditorium. His activities include dramatics, Hi-Y, Masque and Gavel, National Honor Society, Bookroom, Ushers and band.

FRED WALTON

Fred, who has actively participated in baseball, football, and basketball during three of his years at Children's Home, will be looking forward to a career as a business man—successful of course!

DAVID R. WATSON

Dave, our Pine Whispers sports editor, holds that job highest in his memories of Reynolds. Dave, hoping to be a writer, had dramatics, track, football and Ushers club as some of his activities.

DIANE WELTNER

"Di", returning from Plainfield High in New Jersey, will recall the Journalism Room when she's a caseworker in the courts. Maybe because she was Senior editor of the annual and a P.W. reporter in addition to the Resegi and College clubs.

Reynolds

Class of 1952

MILDRED LEONTEEN WESTBROOK

"Teenie" will remember the National Honor Society when she's a secretary. Could be because she was secretary of it! House of Representatives, Resegi, Library staff, and Voice have kept "Teenie" busy.

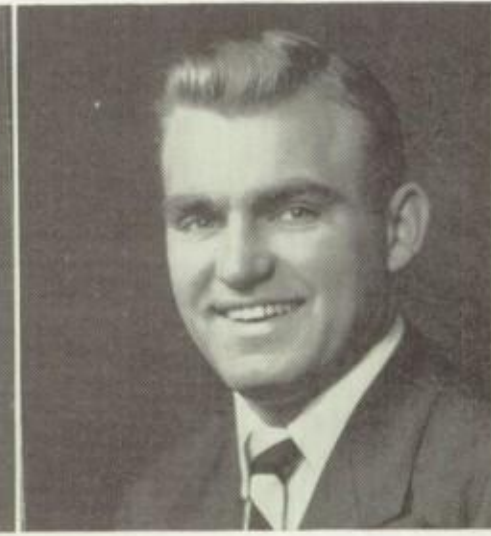

MARY GUERRANT WHARTON

Mary, who in her Junior year came back to Reynolds from Salem Academy, will recall most the people in RJR. Her activities include Resegi, French club, Brush and Palette club and tennis.

CAROLYN WHITE

Orchestra, Resegi, College club, Y-Teens, Boosters club, Dramatics, needlework and soccer! Quite a string of activities! Carolyn has nursing in her future. Her Senior year, and football games are her most treasured memories.

JAMES R. WHITE

The library was a favorite spot for "White" and so it will remain a favorite memory of Reynolds. Football, baseball, the Key and Monogram clubs are White's activities. To be a dentist is his ambition.

KENNETH VERNON WHITE

"Moose" hopes to get through college and make good. His activities include football and Dramatics. Taking the commercial course, Moose will always remember the library and the boys and girls at RJR.

MARTY WHITE

Mr. Crowell's philosophies will be remembered by Marty who came from Florida. She has been in the Brush and Palette club, French club and Resegi. Commercial art is in Marty's future.

JO ANN WILLIAMS

When "Jody" is a secretary, she will think of RJR's football parades and beach houseparties. Her activities were: College, Resegi, Boosters, Dramatics and Needlework clubs, Y-Teens, Hall Monitor, Office Page and Business Manager of Annual.

MARGARET REAVIS WOOTEN

To be a trained nurse is Margaret's ambition: 3:10 classes in the Music room her most treasured memory. Resegi, Senior Scouts, Y-Teens, Glee, College and the Thursday Morning Music clubs were some of Margaret's activities.

LARRY WRIGHT

Lai, who took the scientific course, hopes to get through. Thursday mornings must have been special for him because that time is outstanding in his RJR Memories. The SSC and track were Lai's activities.

STERLING THORNTON WYLIE

A future fashion designer, Silver will remember the people at Reynolds. Sports, GAA, Teen-Age Council, College club, Resegi, Y-Teens, and Dramatics were a few of the activities that kept Silver so busy.

GLENN YODER

Glenn, a science major, has been active in basketball, football, track, Hi-Y, Monogram club, SSC, and the band. Maybe sports and people will remain in Glenn's memory when he's "out in the world."

Class of 1952

Reynolds

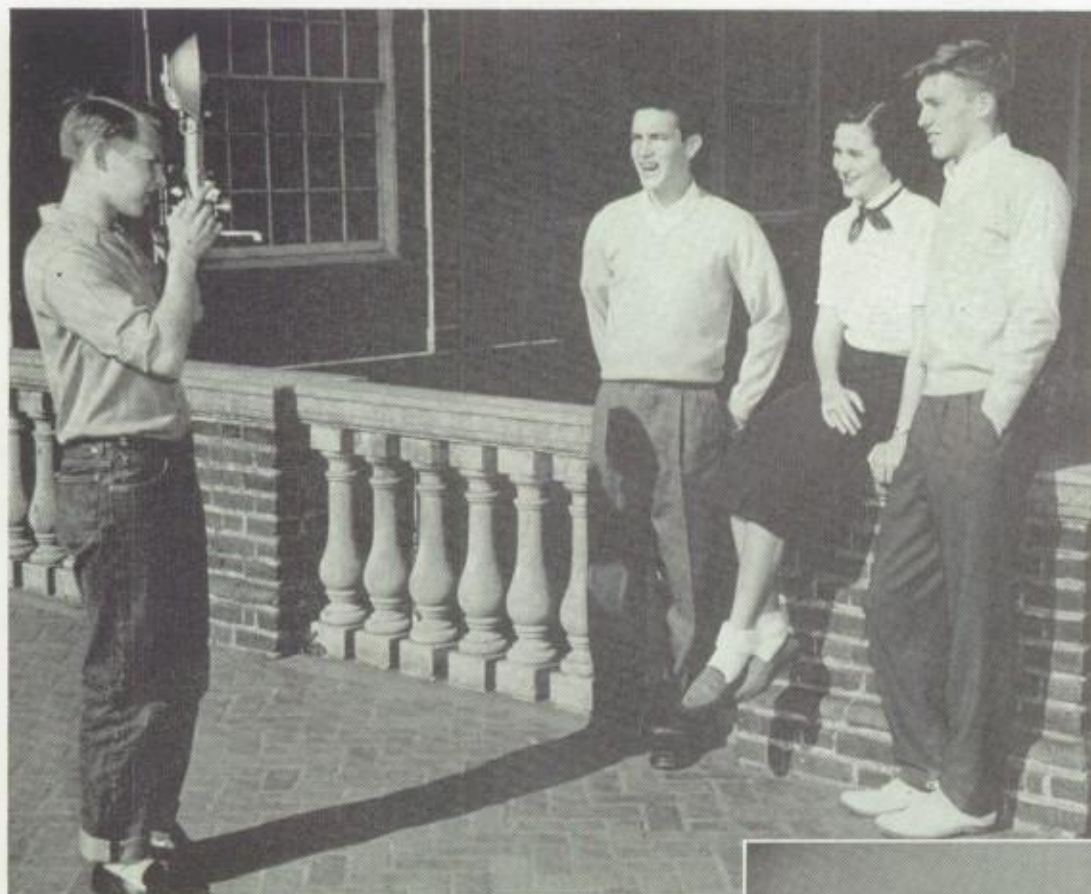

BARBARA JEAN YOUNG

Jean will remember the people and passing physics (she hopes!). House of Representatives, Mixed Chorus, Y-Teens, and College club have occupied Jean.

RICHARD VANCE ZIGLAR

Dick, who was very active in the band, will remember Mr. Mayer and the band when he is a minister. Bible, French clubs, Ushers and drum majoring for the band were his activities.

GRAY PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF '52

Yawn! Morning already? My, but I was tired after graduation last night. In fact I was so exhausted from those sleepless nights during exams that as soon as I got home I flopped on the sofa and was asleep almost before my eyes closed. Oh, well I guess I'll go out and get the morning paper and start my first day as a high school graduate.

Say, that middle-aged man, walking down the street with those seven children looks like Tom Brown! Why, it is Tom, but he couldn't have acquired that bay window and those grey temples since last night! I'll go over and find out what has happened to him.

"Hey, Tom," I shout, "just a minute."

"What d'ya want, old man?" Tom answers.

"Old man? Tom, don't tell me you have already forgotten me since graduation at Gray last night."

"Say, behind that beard you do look like a fellow who graduated with me back in 1952."

"Beard? Why back in 1952? What are you talking about? What year do you think this is?"

"1972, of course. I guess these past twenty years must have been pretty hard ones for you to leave you like this with your long beard."

"1972! Twenty years! Long beard! No, it's fantastic; but it must be true. I'm a modern Rip Van Winkle. But, Tom, what has happened to all of my former classmates since last night—I mean 1952?"

"Being tied down with seven kids, you can't expect me to keep up with everything, but I'll tell you what to do. That newspaper in your hand is a copy of the Daily Bugle, Winston-Salem's leading newspaper. If you will go up to the Daily Bugle office, I'm sure you can track down all of your old friends.

And so, after thanking Tom and enjoying a hearty meal and a clean shave, I hail Leon Lanier's Express cab and whiz away to look up my former classmates and discover what changes have transpired in the past two decades.

Over the cab radio comes the voice of Paul Cunningham, noted news commentator. He explains all about a big event taking place on the outskirts of Winston-Salem, where famous scientists Robert Johnson and Tony Miller are preparing their super-atomic rocket ship for a trip to the moon. Peggy Messick and Joan Roberts, their assistants, are going along on the trip to set up communication back to the earth.

the Russians with his new secret weapons; namely, Marie Pettyjohn and Nell Martin, who keep up such a constant chatter at each meeting that the Russian representative is unable to get his emphatic "no" into the discussion. Employed as their secretaries are Shirley Williams, Irene Tucker, Elizabeth Stanley, and Eunice Stroud.

At this point the announcer breaks in with the news that Frances Tuttle has won a trip to the South Pole, in a contest sponsored by the Taylor and Ditto Tooth Paste Company, established by Shirley Lou and Shirley R. Taylor.

By now Leon's Express is in the heart of the city; and, getting out, I head toward the office of the Daily Bugle. Walking down the street I look up, my eyes meeting a gigantic building. Upon inquiry I find that, designed by engineers Charles McDaniel and Whalen King and built by the Whalen King Construction Company, it is the world's tallest building and is called "Stovall's Steeple" after millionaire Fred Stovall. A glance at the directory shows that Doctor Bruce Mawby and stock broker Rodney Reich have offices in this building.

Across the street I see Snyder's Five and Ten Cent Store, operated by Clarice Snyder, with Alma Woods, Frances Jarvis, and Peggy Templeton as clerks. At a clothing store next door I see proprietor Betsy Heath presenting a fashion show, with Phyllis Alexander, Peggy Valetos, Jane Newsome, Helen Birke, and Hilda Stonestreet wearing the latest Paris fashions, created by designer Johnny Coleman.

Why, there's Howard Rayfield on the corner. He must really be up in this world, for it seems that he is trying to sell Bobby Talley the Brooklyn Bridge. But he isn't far ahead of Bobby, who is offering to trade him the Statue of Liberty for it. They are standing in front of Doughy's Bakery Shop, which is operated by Clayton Caudill. They always said that someday he would be just rolling in dough.

Well, here's the Daily Bugle building; and, upon entering I step into the elevator, run by Eugene Priddy, and am then directed by copy boy C. Eugene Shore to the office of fighting editor Don Wilson. With full co-operation, editor Wilson summons his staff of reporters to aid me in my quest for information. First, enters sports editor Bill Carpenter, who has just returned from covering the World Series. It seems that while there he saw Richard Sharpe, Jack Jarrard, and Bobby Sowers in action. He also reports that Ray Whitley, Bill Link, and Toby Transou are playing with the Camel City World-trotters championship basketball team. W. D. Fesperman, Neil Clark, and Harold Wooten, assisted by water boy Jay Ketchie, are playing pro-football with the New York Wolves, while Coach Kelion Hinshaw is now head mentor of the Gray High gridiron squad. Others on the faculty at my old alma mater are Carol Hildreth; Betty Jo Threatt; girls' athletic coaches, Martha Sheetz and Joan Holleman; and Joann Smith, author of that celebrated book on geometry, "Old Theorems Never Die."

At this point, in hustles Billie Lou Higginbotham, society editor of the Bugle, with all the dope from the society world. It seems Jean Miller is currently headlined at the Metropolitan Opera. The last heard from Betty Jean Cash was a loud bang from the piano at Carnegie Hall, where she is appearing with the Philharmonic Orchestra, under the co-direction of Bill Sattenfield.

Broadway lights claim Phyllis Smith, M. Eugene Shore, and Jewell Browning, who are featured in "Road to Lower Slobovia", which is being produced by the foremost playwright in America, Jacqueline Bolin. Elizabeth Hunter and Doris Cecil, advisers to the love-lorn, publish articles in the Daily Bugle, while Rena Gambill has replaced Emily Post with her books on etiquette.

Among the other news I hear that the 1972 Madame Curies, Elizabeth Bates and Peggy Wooten, are leading atomic researchers, while in another lab not far away Jimmy Johnson and his assistants, Greta Sprinkle and Helen Myers, are trying to perfect a hair restorer that will not only grow hair; but, when poured out of the bottom of the bottle, will shave as well. Stenographers Ruth Hall, Sue Speaks, Peggy Motsinger, Eleanor Parrish, and Elvie Sealey are all employed at Wall Street offices in New York.

Author Faye Dwiggins has just published her latest book, "Ivan Hoe," a novel that deals with life behind the iron curtain. Speaking of far away places, I find that archeologists Barbara Barron and LaNelle Hunter are studying the ancient pyramids in Egypt; while Freddy Walker, Jack Bledsoe, and Bobby Fox may be found deep in darkest Africa, making a study of pygmy civilization. Nearer home big game hunters Bobby Clodfelter and Rudy Yontz are setting out on a trip to Pilot Mountain, where they will seek to make a prize catch by outwitting the elusive gopher.

The Henry Fords have had their day. Ed Willard's newly designed car, the Rocket 99, tops the field according to official tester, Kermit Parrish, who reports that the speed limit cannot be broken with this vehicle, since, when the limit is reached, wings automatically spring into place and the car becomes an auto-plane. The only complaint about this was from traffic cop Edwin Easley, whose salary was cut because of his lack of business. Oh, well, he was getting ready to quit anyway, since Patsy Alley has become chief of police. This happened after June Willard was elected mayor of Winston-Salem and dedicated to set up a women's police force. Peggy Sweet and Lois Young have already taken the post of city jailers, while Doris Tutterow and Gaye Binkley are two ace sleuths employed by Patsy and June.

Helen Smith and Peggy Bradley, oil tycoons, have become fabulously wealthy after investing in some supposedly worthless oil stock purchased from James Morgan. With the money a new hospital has been built, where Velma Reynolds, Edna DeShazo, Carolyn Case, and Peggy Flynt are employed as nurses. At an entertainment program at the hospital tonight will appear the famous comedian, Bill Gentry; Joyce Wells, star of cinema; and acrobats Harold Holland and James Bengel.

Danny Flowers, United States Senator from North Carolina, is speaking to a distinguished audience, which includes Dr. Wayne Hyatt, D. D. T., famous explorer and lecturer; and his fellow travellers, Sonny Orvin and Richard Childress.

My! What's all that commotion outside the Daily Bugle? Peering from the window, I see Betty Leamon, Ramona Smith, and Pat Shermer riding down the middle of Main Street on—of all things—tricycles. Can my eyes be deceiving me? 'No', someone replies, "they are only testing those tricycles before they are sold at the Tiny Tot store, where the girls are employed."

My! This has been some day tracing down my classmates of 1952. What I need now is a good rest. Why, there's a soft and comfortable sofa here in the office. Maybe I should lie down for a little nap. Who knows? Perhaps the next twenty years will go by just as quickly!

GRAY HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '52

On a rainy day in September 1948, the class of '52 entered high school. Despite the wet weather our spirits were not dampened, as we were looking forward expectantly to days we could spend over 'midst the forest and 'neath the shade of the oaks. Despite our dreary beginning many of us were to come shining brightly through before our departure from the scene.

Ray Whitley, quickly making himself known, was elected assistant-secretary of the student organization. Graham Rights was also recognized during his freshman year, winning the honor of "On the Beam", which was bestowed upon him by the Gray Light staff.

Although some of us made a big splash as freshmen, it was during our sophomore year that we really stepped out. Tony Miller, Graham Rights, Johnny Coleman, W. D. Fesperman, and Ray Whitley were inducted into the Key Club. Johnny Coleman, Graham Rights, Tony Miller, and Don Wilson were added to the Hi-Y Club, and M. Eugene Shore, a drama enthusiast, gained admittance into the Masque and Gavel. Betty Jean Cash was elected assistant-secretary of the student body.

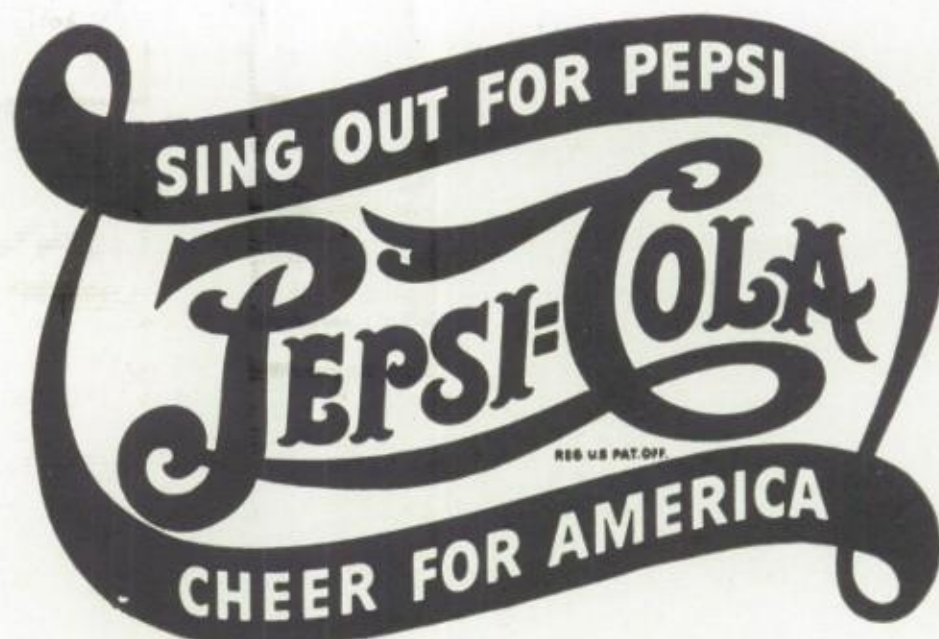

In an essay contest on heart disease Graham Rights won third place in the city, a year later taking top honors in the same contest. Three, as sophomores, won "On the Beam" honors: Betty Jean Cash, Don Wilson, and Barbara Barron.

1950 brought the class additional prominence, the rise to the rank of juniors, presenting a further opportunity for service. Many of our fondest memories took place that year, among them our first Junior-Senior, the election of officers to represent the entire class, and the transfer of seats at the final installation service.

The class contributed greatly to the success of athletic teams, W. D. Fesperman serving as co-captain in football, and Ray Whitley and Richard Sharpe, both of whom won city-wide recognition for their ability to score points, co-captained the basketball team. W. D., who was named baseball "Player of the Year" in the city high schools, received the Cardinals' trophy.

Ray Whitley was elected to serve as vice-president of the student body. Chosen as leader for the class were Richard Sharpe, president; Ray Whitley, vice-president; Pat Pierce, secretary; and Rodney Reich, treasurer. The Key Club inducted Danny Flowers, Rodney Reich, Bobby Sowers, and Bill Carpenter; and the Hi-Y took in the following boys: Bobby Sowers, Bill Link, Kelion Hinshaw, Leon Lanier, and Ray Whitley.

Approved for membership into the Quill and Scroll were journalists Tony Miller, Graham Rights, Donald Wilson, and Billie Lou Higginbotham. For outstanding scholarship, Graham Rights, Jean Miller, Tony Miller, Betty Jean Cash, Bill Carpenter, Charles McDaniel, Peggy Messick, Joann Smith, Edna DeShazo Elizabeth Bates, Peggy Flynt, June Willard, Janice Whitney, and Don Wilson were tapped for membership into the National Honor Society.

The Masque and Gavel accepted Jean Miller, Betty Cash, Barbara Barron, Billie Lou Higginbotham, Johnny Coleman, June Willard, Graham Rights, Charles McDaniel, and Elizabeth Bates.

In the field of journalism Graham Rights served the Gray Light as managing editor, Don Wilson as editor-in-chief, and Tony Miller as business manager. On the staff of the annual Billie Lou Higginbotham and Elizabeth Bates teamed up as senior editors; Johnny Coleman was junior editor.

Johnny Coleman took second place in the "Freedom's Open Door" essay contest, with classmate Graham Rights winning third honor. Cited for "On the Beam" were Carol Hildreth and Bobby Sowers. Graham Rights added to his laurels by being elected to serve as city-wide president of the National Honor Society and by being elected Boys' State Representative. Named to participate at Girls' State was Elizabeth Bates, with Betty Jean Cash getting the vote as D. A. R. Representative.

In girls' sports Phyllis Alexander was chosen co-captain of the basketball team, and Lois Young, Elizabeth Bates, Elizabeth Hunter, Sue Speaks, Pat Alley, Shirley Williams, Joan Holleman, Martha Sheetz, Phyllis Alexander, and Joyce Wells were qualified for induction into the Girls' Athletic Association. Supporting the athletic teams as cheerleaders were Frances Tuttle, chief, and June Willard. A future Teachers of America Club was formed, with Graham Rights becoming its president.

In such a manner did we the class of '52, obtain our right to occupy the front seats at assemblies and to be recognized as the leaders of the school. As seniors we have continued to strive for further advancement and many more honors have been bestowed upon the individuals of our class in this, our final, year.

Because of his excellent work last year Donald Wilson was re-elected editor-in-chief of the Gray Light, and Billie Higginbotham was selected editor-in-chief of the Blue and Gold. Others holding editor jobs on the journalism staff were senior editor, Pat Alley; managing editor, Tony Miller; business manager, Johnny Coleman; and boys' sports editor, Bill Carpenter. The presidency of the Hi-Y was filled by Johnny Coleman, the secretaryship by Bobby Sowers, and the treasurer's post by Bill Link. Inductees into the club included W. D. Fesperman, Bill Carpenter, Danny Flowers, Tom Brown, Toby Transou, and Jimmy Johnson.

Martha Sheetz was chosen president of the Girls' Athletic Association; W. D. Fesperman and Rudy Yontz were elected co-captains of the football team; and Phyllis Alexander, Johnny Coleman, and Pat Pierce served as cheerleaders.

Barbara Barron and LaNelle Hunter were inducted into the National Honor Society.

We chose for their outstanding characteristics the following superlatives: best-all-around, Phyllis Alexander, Bobby Sowers; most popular, Frances Tuttle, Ray Whitley; most intellectual, Betty Jean Cash, Graham Rights; most athletic, Martha Sheetz, W. D. Fesperman; best looking, Pat Pierce, Ray Whitley; best sports, Phyllis Alexander, Richard Sharpe; biggest flirts, June Willard, Bill Gentry; most likely to succeed, Betty Jean Cash, Graham Rights; wittiest, Billie Higginbotham, Bill Gentry.

The dedication of the annual went to Miss Brown Phillips, with Buster Miller and Susan Holt, mascots.

The list of our deeds at Gray is now complete; never again shall we win honors for ourselves and our school. However, in our quest for further service, we shall ever be grateful and indebted to Mr. J. A. Woodward; the faculty; and our class sponsors, Miss Mary Miller Knox, Mrs. Carrie May Allgood, and Miss Ruth Meinung, who played such a large part in making our senior year one of our fondest memories.

GRAY LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF '52

We, the 1952 senior class of James A. Gray High School, being of sound mind and good memory, and realizing that our days as a class body are soon to be ended, do hereby ordain and declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

Section I

To our beloved principal, Mr. J. A. Woodward, we give a hearty and sincere thanks for the unselfish and generous help he has always so willingly given us.

Section II

To Mrs. Carrie May Allgood, Miss Mary Miller Knox, and Miss Ruth Meinung, our sponsors, we leave our deepest appreciation for their patient understanding and good sense of humor.

Section III

We express our sincere thanks to all members of the faculty for their untiring efforts in pushing us on to June 2, 1952—a memorable occasion for each of us.

ARTICLE II

Section I

To the rising seniors we leave our seats in room 215, with these instructions: "Read eight English parallels this summer, or you will wish you had."

Section II

To the entire student body we leave our headaches, unexcused tardies, our red F's, and anything else that might show our love and affection.

Section III

Ray Whitley and Richard Sharpe leave their places in the "Shower Room Quartet" to Bill Jones and Lynwood Hurst.

Section IV

To Joan Brown and Barbara Willard, June Willard and Irene Tucker leave their neat appearance.

Section V

To Ralph Siewers, Bill Carpenter leaves his smooth oratorical ability.

Section VI

Ramona Smith leaves her big appetite to Skipper Pifer, in hopes that she can make better use of it.

Section VII

To all newcomers, Joan Roberts leaves her unforgettable Northern accent.

Section VIII

W. D. Fesperman leaves his famous football ability to Jerry Huff, with the sincere trust that he will con-

HANES HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '52

1948 No member of the class of '52 will deny that in 1948 we were probably the greenest freshmen ever to enter the halls of Hanes High School. Yet we doubt if any group ever came with higher ideals and a greater determination to make our class one of which to be proud.

It didn't take us long to become accustomed to the swinging doors, summon slips, and to find our way around "spacious" halls and rooms. Before many weeks had passed, many of us were active in various clubs and showed promises of future leadership. At the close of our first year, Nancy Wooten received the honor of being named Most Outstanding Freshman.

1949 As we began our sophomore year, we felt that we were as important as Seniors. We were beginning now to make progress and to offer real contributions, particularly in the field of athletics. Some of our promising athletes were: Curt Hege, John Andrews, Adrian Cox, Jim Shelton, Paul Harville, and Gene Burton. Bob Adams, who received the honor of playing varsity football his freshman year, was still going strong. The girls who were promising stars were: Carolyn Rogers, Sarah Haymore, and Ima Jean Cline.

Harvey Elledge placed first in the annual Alcohol Essay Contest.

Students outstanding in dramatics this year were Camilla Edwards and Sue Holton.

1950 Our Junior year started out with a bang as we combined our classes to elect officers. Adrian Cox, President; Curt Hege, Vice-President; Nancy Wooten, Secretary; and Shirley Cope, Treasurer; were those we chose to be our leaders. Senior marshalls were Betty Lisenby, Etta Lou Apple, Nina Duncan, and Shirley Cope. Those inducted into the Masque and Gavel were: Pat Ty-singer, Betty Sprinkle, Frances Roberson, Sue Holton, Rebecca Brown, and Nina Duncan. Jim Shelton and Bob Adams were inducted into the Quill and Scroll. The National Honor Society induction, which always warmed and thrilled us, became very important to us this year because some of our classmates would be inducted. Those tapped were: Lawrence Masten, Betty Atkinson, Darden Haslett, Etta Lou Apple, William Beck, Nancy Wooten, Gene Burton, and Adrian Cox.

To end a wonderful year, we entertained the Seniors at the yearly Junior-Senior Prom, held on the Balinese Roof of the Robert E. Lee Hotel. We felt that this affair was a great success.

1951 With butterflies fluttering in our stomachs, we marched down the aisles of the auditorium and took our places in the unfamiliar senior section. We realized that what had been was fast drawing to a close.

Again we elected officers for the year. They were: Johnny Andrews, President; Jim Shelton, Vice-President; Etta Lou Apple, Secretary; and Juanita Harvey, Treasurer. Class Day officers were Sue Holton, Testator; Jim Shelton and Lawrence Masten, Prophets; and Becky Abernathy, Historian.

Superlatives elected were: Most Intellectual, Nancy Wooten and Darden Haslett; Wittiest, Sarah Haymore and John Kirby; Most Popular, Etta Lou Apple and Paul Harville; Best All Around, Juanita Harvey and Johnny Andrews; Most Likely To Succeed, Becky Abernathy and Charles Southern; Most Athletic, Carolyn Rogers and Adrian Cox; Best Looking, Betty Lisenby and Curt Hege; Biggest Flirts, Imogene Aaron and Lawrence Masten.

Contributions to the music department were offered by Nina Duncan, Bill Talbert, Rebecca Brown, and Lawrence Masten.

Journalism's contributors were Douglas Swaim, Ann Talbot, Harvey Elledge, Etta Lou Apple, Jim Shelton, Bob Adams, Shirley Nail, Imogene Aaron, Jim Reavis, Becky Abernathy, and Sue Holton.

Outstanding seniors in Distributive Education were: Mary Johnson, Joan Quate, R. J. Burton, Dale Catlett, Barbara Rikard, Sarah Haymore, and Lyla Rikard.

Betty Atkinson and Nancy Wooten were the most outstanding commercial students.

Members of the Key Club were William Beck, our mayor, Floyd Tuttle, Charles Southern, Stanley Self,

We, the graduating seniors of 1952, want to express our sincere gratitude and appreciation to the faculty and our principal for the patience and guidance they have displayed toward us during this final period of our high school education. Now, as we leave to cross the threshold of future life and anticipate the wonderful high-lights it may hold for us, we are confident that the remembrance of our high school days will bring us deepest satisfaction in the years to come; for we realize that in these four short years, we have accomplished more than any other period of our lives.

We face the future with confidence because of the fruitful years at Hanes High.

HANES LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF '52

We, the John W. Hanes graduating class of nineteen hundred and fifty-two, being of sound body and fairly sound mind, do hereby ordain and declare this, our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

Section I

To our principal, Mr. R. S. Haltiwanger, we wish to express our deepest gratitude for the help and guidance which he has so freely given us during our years at Hanes.

Section II

To Mrs. Perry and Miss Ford, our senior sponsors, and to the other members of the faculty, whom we forgive for having assigned us year after year so much homework, we say simply "thanks for everything."

Section III

To our successors, the juniors, we leave our sincerest wishes for a successful senior year, and our one remaining privilege, the front seats in the auditorium.

ARTICLE II

Section I

Paula Collier leaves her interest in Elon College to Diana Rideout.

Section II

Paul Harville leaves the long walk to school to Ralph Clark and Nan Tuttle wills her "Hot Rod Driving" to "Bink" Tuttle, in hopes that Bink will get as much enjoyment out of racing as Nan did.

Section IV

Etta Lou Apple wills her ability to feud and fight to anyone who goes steady.

Section V

Ann Talbot leaves her interest in Gray High School to Frances Freeman, who seems to have many interests there anyway.

Section VI

Shirley Cope Nail leaves her place on the soccer team to next year's captain, in the hopes that Hanes will have another City Championship team.

Section VII

Pat Tysinger and Bill Talbert leave their places in band to Mr. Walker's next "victims."

Section VIII

Pete Parker wills his "hard cat" clothes to brother Ben.

Section IX

Dickie Ziglar and Lawrence Masten leave their seats on the football bench to Richard Rogers and Robert Sealey, who will probably sit there anyway.

Section X

Bob Adams leaves both his height and his size to Eugene Wright, who is rising fast.

Section XI

John Rierson leaves his tireless energy to next year's cheerleaders. With this help, Hanes High should really have some school spirit.

Section XII

Larry Ward leaves his place on the football field to anyone capable of filling it.

Section XIII

Mary Ann Jones wills her fondness of Buicks to Kate Gladstone.

Section XIV

Ima Jean Cline wills her ability to get into trouble to Loretta White.

Section XV

Jimmy Reavis leaves his artistic talents to Connie Davis.

Section XVI

Camilla Edwards wills her "way with the men" to Barbara Sizemore. Look out, boys!

Section XVII

Betty Lisenby leaves her Beauty Contests to a good prospect, Ruth Jean Sherron.

ELIZABETH— Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. This is Miss Ann Gregory, a new member of our little family. She's recuperating from a trip to New York.

(Assorted hello's. Baseball drops out on stage and interrupts.)

ELIZABETH— Oh! Do we have to watch baseball this afternoon?

DAVE— Turn it over to the wrestling program. I want to see Bouncing Bob Buchanan, the Feelavision star.

HAROLD— Bob Buchanan! Say Phil, remember how envious we were when he got into the Key Club in the 10th grade?

PHILLIP— I certainly do. Charlie Miller was President of the Key Club and Manfred Johnston was Secretary when we were Seniors. By the way, what's Charlie doing now?

SARAH— He is the head of the Yadkinville Teenage Center, and guess who his hopscotch director is—Lee Levy.

(Nurse brings in announcement sheet.)

ELIZABETH— It's 1:36—time for your daily announcement sheet. (She reads.) The Reynolds Restorium Sixth Period Periodical. Sick excuses: Don Fowler, 11:30; Rochelle Katzin, 8:35; and now for the announcements: All Senior Service Club Alumni members be sure to come back to plant tulips on the rotunda. Signed: Ray Fentriss.

Attention Resegis! Did you know that some of the blackboards are dirty? Remember your duty.

Signed: Mary Ann Smith.

There will be a rehearsal of "The Shaking Toe" at 3:06.

They are all the announcements for today. Whew--Think I'll sit down and watch Feelavision for a little while. How was your trip to New York, Ann?

ANN— I had to come here to rest from it. I finally got tickets to that new play, "The Queen and Me", written by Marilyn Johnson, and produced by Pat Perry. Who'd have thought that the editors of our old school paper would go that far?

ELIZABETH— Well, look at the Stars - Jimmie Turner and Joan Parsons. I knew they would be doing something like that with all the experience they had in High School Dramatics. Remember the play, "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals," that won first prize in the state contest? Rusty Palmore took the leading role and Jimmy Turner directed it.

ing about our old classmates do you remember the Will I wrote for Class Day?

DAVE— Yeh! Ha! Funny, wasn't it? Did you go to that new nightclub, "Perry's Pair-o dice" in New York, Ann?

SARAH— I read in the paper that Charles has a pretty good floor show. Sarah Lou Reynolds, our Rebop torch singer, is the featured vocalist, and he has that hilarious new comedy team, Buzzy Sims and Marion Lemly.

ANN— Well, personally, I enjoyed the dinner music of Nancy Peterson, who played 'Chopsticks' while we ate chicken chow mein.

PHILIP— Pardon me a minute. I believe I'll look for that Last Will and Testament.

HAROLD— Oh, don't bother. (He pushes Phil back down in chair) Tell us some more about Charlie's nightclub.

ANN— You know, the funniest thing happened there. Daki Pappas, the headwaiter, spilled something all over Marilyn Buie's dress. It was one of Rachel Katzin's new creations, an iridescent aluminum sheathe with a spun glass bustle. The prominent socialite, Barbara Blackwell, was wearing a strapless gold lame' blouse and a full skirt of plaited bullrushes. Patsy Poplin was sporting a heavenly chinchilla cape and a large chicken-wire picture hat decorated with fuschia ostrich feathers - one of her own creations.

SARAH— Was anyone else there we know?

ANN— Yes, I saw Penny Booke, celebrating his one millionth different date.

(Orderly with orange juice enters.)

DAVE— I'm thinking about getting a new chartreuse automobile. Yesterday I went down to see Barbara Aldridge, you know the owner of "Bab's Used Car Lot". She wasn't in, so I talked to Bill Brown, her chief salesman and he said that it should be next week. They've got some good motorbikes, too.

HAROLD— Oh! that reminds me— Bobby Blackwood, Allen Booe, and George Hall, the famous explorers, just found the Lost Colony on their way to Myrtle Beach on their Molecular Motorbikes.

ELIZABETH— Why how wonderful! That will revolutionize the history books!

DAVE— Harold, did you know that my daughter wants to join the WAVES?

HAROLD— No!!! What is this younger generation coming to?

Your old classmates, Ann Ferree, and Beverly Hackbarth joined the WAVES.

HAROLD— Really? That's the first I've heard of Beverly since she was President of the Library Staff. Carolyn Baldrige, Nancy Dennis, Emma Lou Carter, Julia Crews, and Barbara McElveen worked in the library, too.

DAVE— (Reading newspaper) Look here, the circus is coming to town. Here's a full page ad! We'll all have to go to that!

PHILIP— Why, Mary Wharton is going up in the world. She is billed as the "Atomic Cannon Ball," and Oliver Sapp is the famous lion tamer. He, armed with nothing but a wet noodle, enters a cage of ten lions. He is introduced by a special fanfare of the circus band composed of Ed Gaines, Sylvia Messick, Don Fowler, and Sam Saunders. The circus has a sensational new act originated by Clyde Long, the Strong Man. He juggles FIVE LILTING LILLIPUTIANS, Mimi Allen, Peggy Bain, Carolyn Ivester, Jo Ann Fox, and Jo Ann Williams.

HAROLD— I guess Clyde's brawn is finally paying off. I remember when he and the other boys on the football squad used to go down and practice in the hot sun, even before school started, just to get in shape. Smith Chance, Van Julian, Kenneth White, Jim Nelson, Jim White, and Kason Keiger, who is now chief operator of the Old Town Telephone Company, were there plugging away, too. We sure came close to the Western Championship in fall of '51.

ELIZABETH— Don't forget the girls. At the same time Barbara Davis and Sylvia Messick were pacing our soccer team to many wins.

PHILLIP— Talking about sports, I have something about football in the Last Will and Testament. Let me go and read it to you. EXIT.

ELIZABETH— Remember how excited we were with our new gym? I hear it is still rated as one of the best in the South. By the way, did you know that Bill Abernethy, the professional basketball player gave an exhibition game with his team there last night? Another Reynolds grad, Wayne Atkins, is his manager.

DAVE— No wonder he is so good. I read in the paper that he's been practicing every afternoon since high school.

ANN— I can remember that Glenn Yoder and Bill McNair used to be down there with him every day, too.

ELIZABETH— Well, the girls worked just as hard as the boys. Ann Chambers, Lind Giles, and Dedee Johnson used to be there as much as any of the boys.

HAROLD— You know, Dedee was secretary of our Senior Class too. She took notes while Bob Stepp presided.

ANN— Yes, I remember being on the Council with Bob, Jeff Smith, and Ann Spach, while Harold was President.

SARAH— Remember Ann Coley, our high school beauty queen? It says here that she has just been voted "Miss Ubangi Chieftain" by the Ubangis in South Africa, while she was there for a visit.

ELIZABETH— Richard Ziglar is over there too, teaching his SIMPLIFIED AMERICAN HISTORY COURSE to the Hottentots.

SARAH— Look! Bob Peek has disappeared into the jungles of darkest Africa. He was last seen chasing a giant red butterfly.

HAROLD— That's funny— I saw him at the Business Men's Meeting just last month. A lot of old Reynolds students were there.

PHILLIP— Yes, and I saw Larry Wright, our family doctor, and Bill McNair, the lawyer from my company.

ANN— Oh yes, I read about that meeting. Bob Dixon, the prominent Wall Street broker, was the speaker, and after the meeting Sue Gary, the chief buyer for Saks Fifth Ave., gave a fashion show for the club. Models from "Manfred's Models a la Mode" were Jane (Dewberry) Dudley, Vega (Lemon) Lingle, Mary (Blueberry) Brown, Ann (Strawberry) Smith, and Jan (Huckleberry) Henderson.

HAROLD— I talked with Tom Shultz, who now owns a chain of fish markets. You remember Tom, he was President of our class when we were Freshmen and Sophomores, and L. C. Tucker served as his Vice-President.

ELIZABETH— Yes, it seems that the same people always hold the offices. Remember Harold McKeithen, Will Allred, Don Fowler, and Larry Shepherd were our Junior Class Officers, and then Larry and Manfred Johnson served again as Seniors.

PHILLIP— Speaking of Seniors, don't you want to hear the Senior Will?

DAVE— Yeh, uh, sure— But let me tell you about the Winston-Salem Symphony's debut on Felevision. The broadcast came from Carnegie Hall and I knew everyone in the orchestra. Barbara Myers,, Daniel Swaim, Dewey Chapple, Marvin Cann, and Doug McCorkindale were easy to recognize.

SALEM COLLEGE

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

SARAH— I still don't believe that the harp soloist was Suzanne DeLaney, who used to play for our High School Orchestra.

PHILIP— Well, it was she, and the soloist for next week's program, will be another one of our classmates, Kay McGee, Ann Tesch, Margaret Wooten, Nick Makas Gray Leinbach, Sara Lou Poin-dexter, and Jean Young sing in the program's regular chorus. Say, how about this, Will?

DAVE— Yeh, what about it?

SARAH— Hey, look here, this is the funniest looking house plan—it says, Most Revolutionary House in History, designed by Odell Dis-her. The interior was decorated by Martha White, the famous in-terior decorator, and Buck Marler did the scenic landscaping. My goodness, look at the furniture; it's made of petrified wood. Some modern designer named Martha Martin originated it. Here's the whole story about the house. Says it was built as a rest home for the UN delegates after their strenuous work in the Assembly.

PHILIP— Guess that means Ann Spach and Will Allred will spend a lot of time there. They'll need the rest, after all their long comm-ittee meetings. They always were hard workers. Speaking of hard work, I sure put in a lot of time on that last Will and Testament I wrote the year we were Seniors at Reynolds. Let me show you what I mean.

DAVE— Yeh, it looks good. Ha. Ha.

SARAH— I can't find the Diane Weltner Dix Column here.— Oh, here it is. Wonder if Lind Giles, her chief advisor, wrote this column.

DAVE— Well, I guess I'll have to help my son study his Spelling homework. The third grade gets harder for him every year, just because his teacher Miss Jo Ann Fagg gets prettier.

ELIZABETH— Miss Pfohl, there's a gentleman on the phone.

SARAH— A gentleman? Oh, I'm coming...! (Exit Dave and Sarah)

HAROLD— Gee, this discussion certainly has brought back many memories of all the good times our Class of '52 had at Reynolds. We thought we really had it hard, but looking back, those certinly were happy years.

ELIZABETH— Harold, I can even recall the Eighth Grade. Remem-ber all the silly things we did. I'll never forget the first time I asked a boy to a Y-Teen dance. He was too little to see over the steering wheel so his Daddy took us. After a year of geography, B-Band, Midget football, and voice classes, we finally made it to the Eighth Grade Graduation.

HAROLD— I remember how, as Freshmen, I envied the beards on the Senior boys, during the Centennial, and the parts Dave and Bob Dixon played in Blackbeard. When we returned to school in the Fall of 1949 we felt as if we owned it, but we were quickly disillusioned when we got our first taste of bisecting angles, reading Caesar's Gallic Wars, and learning the parts of the human skeleton.

ELIZABETH— Maybe you remember the tenth grade, but I remember our Junior year best of all, and especially the Moonlight and Roses Junior-Senior.

HAROLD— As Juniors we were eligible for induction into the Honorary Societies. In recognition of their outstanding work as journalists Martha Martin and Ann Gregory were tapped for Quill and Scroll, while Joan Parsons and Jimmie Turner were chosen for membership in the Masque and Gavel. Then Fay Ruth Paynter, and Leonteen Westbrook were inducted into the National Honor Society.

ELIZABETH— Our Senior year really topped it off. Much as we looked forward to graduation, when the time came we were anything but glad. Yes, I wish I could live my four years at Reynolds over again. (Gets Out Handkerchief and sniffs.)

PHILIP— (Snow comes out.)
Speaking of my Senior year—Cut off the Feelavision, there's too much snow— I am going to read my Last Will and Testament!

HAROLD— I'm sorry I don't have time to stay and hear it, but it's time for my nap. (Exits.)

PHILIP— I know you want to hear it again, Elizabeth.

REYNOLDS LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF '52

Sometimes it seems a bitter pill
For a high school class
to make a will.
For it means letting go of what we've got—
All the things we value a lot.
But with high school days almost through
We, the class of '52,
Swallow the pill because we know
We really have to let them go.
But still somehow sentiment demands
That our treasures fall

one by one,
We sincerely hope that when 'tis done
Our successors will promise to be very kind
To these beloved things
we leave behind.

ARTICLE I Section I

Now Mr. Joyner,
as head of the school,
You've done your best
to enforce each rule.
We give to you most cordial thanks,
And hope that you'll forgive our pranks.

Section II

For endeavoring to teach us what we should know,
For having patience
when our brains were slow,
For giving us hope and inspiration,
We express to the teachers our appreciation.

Section III

Keeping all things straight;
collecting the dues;
Planning graduation;
telling the news—
Takes someone who'll work
just like a beaver,
And so we leave thanks to our sponsor, Miss Weaver.

Section IV

To the Juniors—physics problems of various kinds,
Macbeth, term papers,
history outlines;
Virgil, the senior lunch room,
our chapel seats,
Autobiographies, Banner's, and reference sheets.

ARTICLE II

Section I

Harold McKeithen's leadership is hard to surpass
And we're proud to say
he's a member of our class,
As President of the Council
he leaves his place
To next year's leader
who'll keep up the pace.

Section II

Ann Coley, that sweet,
friendly lass,
Leaves the prettiest smile
of the Senior Class
To someone whom we're sure that you've all met,
That cute, cute girl,
Miss Martha Legette.

Section III

Speedy Buck Hall,
our all round athlete,
Has steered his team
out of many a defeat
He leaves to all future players from Children's Home
A good luck wish wherever they roam.

Section IV

The art of conversation is a gift, we must admit.
But we think Marion Lemly has been overblessed a bit.
Her talking and giggling is left to Bess Hart
For if anyone does,
Bess fits the part.

Section V

Libby Rumble and Charles Perry have really made a hit
With their funny(?)
jokes and clever wit.
To their poor listeners
in kindly hands,
So, as we mete them,
they now leave their humor
In hope that their jokes will be caught much sooner.

Section VI

Sylvia Messick, our girl of sports, Who's at ease on any of the various courts
Bequeathes her skill in handling the ball
to Miriam Allred,
who doesn't need it at all.

Section VII

We've all enjoyed the singing of Kay McGee,
And Dewey Chapple's trumpet will go down in history
They leave their places of talent and skill
for Lynn Hamrick and Ray Newsome to fill.

Section VIII

There's one girl who uses her brain all the time
And far up the ladder of success she'll climb.
To that genius, Sarah Pfohl,
we are naturally referring,
Who upon Lindsay Marshall
her grey matter is conferring.

Section IX

Marilyn Johnson and Ann Gregory were to be found
Making our annual and paper
the best in town
To Marya Bednerik
and Marjorie Muller is left behind Ann and Marilyn's ability along a journalistic line.

Section X

Our Romeo, Penny Booke, who has many dates,
And with girls at school
or the Academy rates,
Leaves his book of phone numbers,
in hope that it helps,
To a junior Apollo, handsome Jake Phelps.

Section XI

On the stage and off
there's been one star
Who has outshined
even Jerry Lewis by far!

Turner's the last name,
 Jimmie the first,
 And henceforth from Dave
 Pardington his ability will burst.

Section XII

Sammy Sanders,
 who has toiled very hard,
 And received many honors
 for his work at guard
 Leaves to Teenie Chapple
 his football skill,
 For if anyone will use it,
 Teenie will.

Section XIII

You'll find none better for musical fame
 Than that marvelous maestro,
 Daniel Swaim.
 To aspiring musicians
 Dan's musical brain is left
 And his wishes that they will become more deft.

ARTICLE III

Section I

As English instructor
 she's done admirable work
 And helped us along when our duty we shirked.
 That is why this departing
 Senior Class picks
 Miss Hazel Stephenson
 as Executrix.

Section II

With our thoughts all expressed and possessions all willed
 We hope that these wishes
 may be fulfilled,
 As this document
 our seal we affix to
 On this sixth of June,
 Nineteen hundred fifty-two.
